Our records from the St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans, Louisiana, show that the children listed below were born to Marie-Josephe Morin and her husband Jean Baptiste Ladner. I am sorry that I have not found in the St. Louis Cathedral records any record of a baptism of a Virginia Ladner born to Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner. Have you looked for this record in the archives of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Mobile, Alabama? It is possible you may find it there, if perhaps a priest from Mobile, Alabama, baptised her. Back in those days, as you may know--that is, between 1804 and 1826--the Mississippi Gulf Coast was at different times a part of the parishes of Mobile and of New Orleans, as there were no churches permanently established between New Orleans and Mobile, and priests from either city performed marriages and baptisms along the coast and then recorded them in the church to which they were going, or on their return to either Mobile or New Orleans.

The children of Jean Baptiste Ladner (son of Santiago, or in French Jacques, Ladner, and Marie Jeanne Carcaux (in Spanish Maria Juana)) and Marie-Josephe Morin (daughter of Joseph Morin 1st and Louise Christian Ladner) for whom we have baptismal records, were:

1. Maria Ursula, born 12 January 1804;
2. Maria Clemencio, born 19 December 1805;
3. John Baptiste, born 6 October 1807;
4. Marie Mercier (Melissa?), born 26 March 1810;
5. Margarita Constanza, born 14 August 1812;
6. Juan Valerio, born 14 May 1814;
7. Angelique Thectine, born 7 September 1816;
8. Manuel, born 22 January 1822;
9. Antonio Alfonso, born 22 February 1824;
10. Clara, born 3 July 1826.

Mrs. Helen I. Midgette of 261 Westwood Avenue, Mobile, Alabama 36606, who claims descent from Mary Clementine Ladner who married a Jean B. Bosarge, has written me that her research shows that there was a "Virginia" born to Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner between 1816 and 1822, and that Virginia married John B. Gorlott in 1836, while another sister named Natalie married a Seafro Gorlott in 1830. I want to repeat here that I have no actual records of either Virginia nor of Natalie's existence; I do have baptismal records of the other children listed above from No. 1 through No. 10, and these baptismal records of those ten children show their parents to be Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner. Sometimes the grandparents are shown in the baptismal records in my possession, and sometimes no grandparents' names are given.

Mrs. Midgette says that Mary Ursule Ladner married Joseph Bosarge in 1820; Mary Clementine married Jean B. Bosarge in 1820; Jean Baptiste Ladner, ~~his~~ their brother, married Deloris Lami in 1828; Melissa married Peter Lami in 1824; Margarita Constance married Alexander Lami in 1824; Juan Valerio married Mary Rooney (No date given); Manuel Edmond married Louisa Bosarge with no date given; Antonio Alfonso married Maleta Goldman in 1846; and Clara married Lemas Bosarge in 1841.

Miss Mary Ellen Lipscomb, 1260 South Ann Street, Mobile, Alabama, ZIP 36605, claims descent from a Constance Ladnier who married Alexander Lami.

Marie-Josephe Morin's father was born about 1739 in St. Pierre-du-Sud (which means "St. Peter of the South Coast of the St. Lawrence River") in Montmagny County, Province of Quebec, Canada. This little village is about 20 miles east of Quebec City, Canada. Her father, Joseph Morin I, was a son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet, as I wrote on Page 1 of this long letter. Denis Morin was a son of Pierre Morin II and Francoise Chiasson, and Pierre Morin II was a son of Pierre Morin I dit Boucher and Marie Martin.

The first Morin ancestor of Marie-Josephe Morin was married about the year 1661 at old Port Royal (known today as Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia), and his son Pierre Morin II was married in 1682 at old Beaubassin (near today's Amherst, Nova Scotia), and we have a copy of this 1682 marriage record. The next direct ancestor was Denis Morin son of Pierre Morin and Francoise Chiasson who married in November 1718 at St. Pierre, and we have a certified photostat of this 1718 marriage contract. Their son, Joseph I, was married at Mobile 2 June 1778 to Louise Ladner, and their daughter Marie-Josephe Morin born in 1782 is your ancestor.

We hope you will find some of this information to be of help to you. It is very sad to me that in the past the erroneous information which stated Marie-Josephe Morin was related to an Indian received such attention, but we have found nothing in the records to support such a claim. On the other hand, we have found that Marie-Josephe Morin was related to the first farmer and first judge in Canada, who was Louis Hebert the apothecary; she was related to the discoverer of the Mississippi River, Louis Jolliet's wife, and she was related to the Augustin-Norbert Morin of Canada who was Assistant Prime Minister of Canada for two terms 1854-57.

My husband and I would enjoy having you visit us and we'll be glad to show you records and other information in our possession. I am sorry I cannot again write you such a long letter, but if you will visit with us in person, we'll be glad to talk family history with you and show you ~~hows~~ what we have collected on this family's history. If you would care to send me information on your mother's and father's families I will keep it with my records and perhaps someday someone may find it helpful. With best wishes, I remain

Yours truly,

Mrs. John D. Moran

SOME MORAN RECORDS

The following letter was written in August 1972 by Dr. John L. Moran of Portsmouth, Virginia, to the John D. Moran family of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, when Dr. Moran returned from a 7,000-mile journey to the "...lands of our ancestors," visiting various historic sites in eastern Canada where succeeding generations of this Morin-Moran family are recorded as having sojourned between 1660 and 1770.

Because many of today's Mississippi Gulf Coast residents are of French-Canadian ancestry, it is believed that Dr. Moran's descriptions of some of the most historic locales in Canada will be of interest to our readers; his letter is reproduced here with his permission.

Portsmouth, Virginia
August 25, 1972

To Mr. and Mrs. John D. Moran & Family
Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Dear Gloria & John, Marie and Anita:

Our 7,000-mile pilgrimage to the lands of our ancestors has ended. We have traveled from Mississippi to Nova Scotia and have satisfied our desire to see all the places where our line of Morans has lived since the first Pierre Morin came from France to Acadia around 1660.

After visiting south Mississippi, the Gulf Coast, and Cat Island, ⁽¹⁾ we returned to our home in Virginia and from there we set out to Canada to find the lands where our first Acadian and Canadian ancestors had lived, married, had children baptized, and died. Our first stop in Canada was in the office of Mr. Roland-J. Auger, Head of the Genealogy Section in the Ministry of Cultural Affairs, the National Archives, P.Q., Quebec City. Mr. Auger, with whom we had corresponded frequently, was away in Montreal; however, his assistant Mr. Gingras took us in hand and showed us all the materials they have in their library. There are numerous records of Canadian Morins dating from the 1600's, including those known to be ours, in their files, but we were unable to find any record there at that time of the Joseph Morin son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet who we knew had married Louise Ladner at Mobile on 2 June 1778. However, on returning home to Virginia I secured some material suggested by Mr. Gingras, and I have found Joseph listed as a witness at the wedding of his sister Francoise to Pierre Pellerin recorded by the Notary Pierre Rousselot April 9, 1749. ⁽²⁾

(1) -- accompanied by Mr. Nathan Boddie, present owner of Cat Island. -- Ed.

(2) -- Joseph Morin, Denis (II), Antoine, and Jean-Marie Morin, all brothers of the bride, are recorded as witnesses on 9 April 1749 at the signing of the civil marriage contract between their sister, Marie-Francoise Morin, "...daughter of Denis Morin (I) and Madeleine Boulet...." and Pierre Pellerin (son of Alexander Pellerin and of Jeanne Gaudet) widower of Genevieve des troismaisons, at St. Pierre-du-Sud, Montmagny County, P.Q., Canada. The original of this marriage contract is in the National Archives at Quebec City. The ecclesiastical validation of this marriage was recorded 14 April 1749 at St. Pierre-du-Sud; Tanguay, Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles Canadiennes, Vol. VI, Page 275. -- Ed.

Mr. Gingras is a full-blown genealogy devotee, having documented his own family completely, on both sides, with names, dates, documentation, etc., for 16 generations. He spent several summers in France in order to find the material. He suggested that we look at the works of Nicolas-Charles Levesque, who served in Montmagny, Quebec, from 1752 to 1795, for some record of our Joseph Morin's activities there between his 1749 witnessing of his sister's marriage and his appearance by 1778 in the Gulf coastal area. Unfortunately an "inventaire" of the Notary Levesque's works has not yet been published. The Notary Michon's "Inventaire"⁽³⁾ which lists documents for the period 1709-1749 is, however, like the Notary Rousselot's, replete with references to our Morin family.

Our second stop was at St. Jean Church on the Isle d'Orleans in the Saint Lawrence River, to meet Father Eugene Morin the parish priest. We had become acquainted with him by corresponding as we were searching for Boulet records at St. Jean Church. We went to his church in the afternoon of Sunday hoping to find him since we had not made an appointment. Fortunately he was there and was just completing a christening ceremony. The young parents with the infant were driven away in an ornately decorated horse and rig after the ceremony. We were told that this was "something special."

Father Eugene was gracious and hospitable as we introduced ourselves. He is in his late fifties, I judge, and was at one time a seminary dean in Quebec City. He speaks English quite well. He invited us to the rectory for tea. His descendancy is through Jean Morin, a brother of our Denis, father of the first Joseph Morin who left the Quebec area and married Louise Ladner in 1778 at Mobile, Alabama. Father Morin knew a little of his lineage, but was unaware of the article, "The Morins of Acadia," from the Summer, 1968 "French Canadian and Acadian Genealogical Review." I have mailed him a copy of the French edition.

We searched the cemetery at St. Jean for familiar names, but found only that of Paquet. That name was very prominent on the Island. The men were all pilots, but the graves we saw were not old.

We found no traces of the names Nicaise, Cuevas, or Ladnier in either the remeteries in Quebec or in Mr. Auger's office. The guide booklet on the Port Royal "Habitation" built in 1605 by Champlain in Nova Scotia tells the story of the 1564 French expedition to Florida commanded by Rene de Laudonniere who built Fort Caroline on the St. Johns River. I wonder about that name. Could it be that Laudonniere became L'Adnier, then Ladner?⁽⁴⁾

We had already ascertained that our Morins had come from Acadia to Quebec City around 1690 and had subsequently settled around St. Pierre-du-Sud, northeast of Quebec City, yet on the south coast of the Saint Lawrence River. On Monday we drove to St. Pierre. Riviere-du-Sud is a district named for the river of the same name, a small, beautifully blue river running parallel to and finally into the Saint Lawrence. St. Pierre is a small village about five miles from the town of Montmagny. The original church of St. Pierre, in which many Morins were married in the 1700's, had been built on the banks of the Riviere-du-Sud. We found the original site, now on the farm of a Mr. Blanchet. Denis Morin, father of the Joseph Morin who came to colonial Louisiana by 1778, was involved in the planning of the original church, according to the records of 1721.⁽⁵⁾ The old St. Pierre

Cemetery is next to the present church. It is now a small memorial park. In this cemetery were buried some of the earliest Morins of this family, e.g., Denis Morin in 1768 after Madeleine his wife had been interred there in 1765. The bodies from the old cemetery were re-buried in 1919, but no identifications are possible for the oldest graves. (A few of the family names noted in this same cemetery by your Editor, in 1973, were: Morin, LeTourneau, Gagne, LaFlamme, Beaumont, Picard, Mercier, Blais, Couillard, Fournier, Talbot, Roy, Proulx, Simoneau, Collin, LeBlanc, Tardif, Samson, Cloutier, LeComte. Most of these older marked burials occurred in the first decade of the 1800's. -- Ed.)

There are still several families of Morins and Boulets and Fourniers in St. Pierre. We met and spoke with some Boulet children, one of whom spoke English. We later learned of at least three Morin families living in St. Pierre. One, Octave Morin, is a grocer. His ad was on the back of the church "bulletin," along with that of Jacques Fournier, "Epicier Licencie," (licensed grocer) whose business occupies the building directly across the street from the St. Pierre church. We went to visit a Madame Morin, a widow who lives with her son and who is 93, spry, alert, and still full of life. Through a translator she informed me she had 19 children. My astonished reply was, "Magnifique!" Madam Morin knew nothing of her husband's ancestry.

While in St. Pierre, we were extremely fortunate in meeting a Mademoiselle Agathe Beaumont, a nurse from Quebec who was back "home" visiting for the day. When she learned of the purpose of our visit she became interested and spent the afternoon as our guide, showing us the entire area. She speaks English quite well, and she proved to be our key to all the doors of St. Pierre we wanted to enter.

Mademoiselle Beaumont is a direct descendant of Jean Baptiste Couillard de L'Espinau, Seigneur of the Riviere-du-Sud, whose family granted land to Pierre Morin II and Denis Morin I, and to the other Morins in the St. Pierre area in the early 1700's. Couillard's sons succeeded him, were granted lands, and came to be known by their grants such as Jean Paul de Beaumont. The Couillard was dropped and Beaumont came to be the name. Mlle. Beaumont's copy of the Couillard de Beaumont history had a map of the Riviere-du-Sud seigneurie. This made it easier for us to pinpoint the Pierre Morin II grant. It was not marked, but we ascertained from the wording of the grant that it was just south of the present-day Berthier, on the Belle-Chasse line. "We" included Mlle. Beaumont, her father and mother, uncle, brother, two sisters, and numerous friends who just "happened" to pass by to see why the "Americans" were in town. The Morin holdings were on the broad, beautiful lands between the Saint Lawrence and the Riviere-du-Sud. It is still farm land. We inquired about land values and found them to be as high as here in Virginia.

Leaving St. Pierre, we crossed the Gaspé Peninsula north of Mont Joli. We had to go as far north as Matane because of construction. We followed the Matane River until we crossed the low range of hills, then we followed the Matapedia River to the head of the Bay of Chaleurs. Our goal was the settlement known as Restigouche where the Morins were settled in 1688 by Richard Denys following their departure from Beaubassin, Acadia.⁽⁶⁾ The site of the Denys trading post, the Micmac Indian village, house and stores, were on what is now called "Old Mission Point" or "Old Church Point" just a few miles west of today's Campbellton, New Brunswick. The Morins were there about two years before they moved to the Quebec City area following the death of Pierre I in 1690.

After an overnight stay in Campbellton, we departed for Nova Scotia, for there in Acadia we were to find the first settlements of our "Morins of Acadie," who were the forefathers of those who subsequently went to Quebec, and of Joseph I who went to the Gulf Coast.

As one enters Nova Scotia from New Brunswick, across a broad, flat marshland area, he comes immediately to a small hilly area rising out of the tidal marshes. On this area a welcome center has been established by the Province of Nova Scotia. This welcome center was built upon the site of the Acadian village of Beaubassin, the second home of the Morins from whence they were exiled in 1688 because of the tragedy of their son, Louis. Beaubassin was burned by the British during the Acadian Expulsion. At that time there were 3,000 people living there. Of course there were no Morins in the Acadian Exile of 1755 since the Morins were in the Quebec City and St. Pierre areas by 1702. Herbin's "History of Grand-Pre" records the first Pierre Morin as an early inhabitant of Port Royal and Beaubassin in his discussion of the earliest Acadian settlers during the 1600's.

The Acadians were farmers. They diked the sea marshes for meadows and farms. Immediately behind the buildings of the welcome center, the Canadian Railroad cuts through a hillside. When the cut was made a hundred years ago, the remains of an Acadian cemetery were discovered. There is an historical marker here, placed on the site of the village church, Notre Dame de Bonsecours, in which the second Pierre Morin and Francoise Chiasson were married on 8 November 1682. (For a translation of this 1682 marriage record, see Page 17 of the August 1972 MCH&GS quarterly.---Ed.)

Our next stop in Nova Scotia was in Grand-Pre, the Acadian village which was one of the ports of exile for the Acadians in 1755. It is now a National Park. This is where the first Acadians diked the marshes to make farmlands. This was our third visit over the years to Grand-Pre and we always feel a deep kinship with the Acadians who had lived and been deported from there. It is the locale of Longfellow's "Evangeline." When we first visited Grand-Pre fifteen years ago when our children were young, we bought a copy of "Evangeline" and read it aloud to them at night.

Our ultimate destination in Nova Scotia was Port Royal, the site of the earliest French settlement in Acadia. We went first to the "Habitation," the site of the first DeMonts-Champlain settlement in Port Royal. The "Habitation" is a reconstruction of the buildings erected there by the French in 1605 and burned by the English in 1613. The apothecary for this expedition was a Parisian named Louis Hebert. His name is on the door of one of the rooms of the "Habitation." After returning from our trip we learned that Louis Hebert is one of our Canadian ancestors. Marie Madeleine Boulet, wife of Denis Morin and mother of Joseph Morin I, was a great, great grand-daughter of Louis Hebert. (7)

The first settlement at Port Royal was burned in 1613 by the English under Samuel Argall of Virginia. By 1635 the French had relocated Port Royal five miles up the Annapolis River, on the opposite shore. The present-day town of Annapolis Royal rests upon the site of this second Port Royal, the Acadian village to which the first Pierre Morin of France came as a colonist and married Marie Martin who had come from France with her parents. Their wedding took place in the village church around 1661. The courthouse of Annapolis Royal is now on the site of that old church. We drove along the one street leading along the high ground of the village and knew that along this same street our first Acadian ancestors had walked more than 300 years ago. We had, indeed, gone back to our beginnings in this land.

We are much richer for having searched for and found the homes of our ancestors-- Deer Island, Cat Island, Biloxi, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, St. Pierre, Restigouche, Beaubassin and Port Royal. We wish for you the same pleasure.

Sincerely,

ouston, Texas, and elsewhere who can trace their origin to northeastern France. The signature of the direct ancestor of most, probably all, Mississippi Coast Morans, still legible today in his original marriage record of 2 June 1778 was "Joseph Morin." The signatures of his friends who signed as witnesses, Jean Favre and Lewis Morotau, are equally clear on that 1778 record. His mother, Madeleine Boulet (1693-1765) was a cousin of the explorer Louis Jolliet's wife, Claire-Francoise Bissot (1656-1710), and both traced their ancestry to Samuel de Champlain's friend, the apothecary Louis Hebert who is honored today throughout Canada as its first jurist, first settler, and first agriculturist. Louis Hebert came to Canada with Champlain for the first time in the winter of 1604-05, returning to France after two years at Port Royal in Nova Scotia. In 1617 he came again with Champlain to Canada, settling this time with his family in Quebec City, just up the hill from Champlain's fort-habitation. Champlain's journals frequently mention his evening visits to this first Quebec City family, noting occasionally that his dog Matelot (Sailor) accompanied him. The Hebert home site is today occupied by Quebec City's city hall and in the courtyard in front there are three groups of bronze statues of Louis Hebert and his family.

The paternal great-grandmother of the first Joseph Moran on the Mississippi Coast, Marie Martin Moran (1637-1710), wife of Pierre Morin (1634-1690), was granted a seigneurie (land) on the Bay of Chaleurs on the Gaspé Peninsula, Quebec Province, in the vicinity of the seigneurie granted to Pierre Le Moyne d'Iberville in 1690 for his expedition against the British at Corlaer (Schenectady, New York). The Widow Moran's "fief" was renounced by her in 1702, after she had moved her family to Quebec City. D'Iberville took no interest in his land and promptly disposed of it, sailing from Quebec in July 1690 to oust the British from Hudson's Bay. Impressed with the record of his accomplishments against the British at Hudson's Bay and elsewhere, d'Iberville was chosen by Louis XIV, King of France, to lead an expedition to find the mouth of the Mississippi River and block its entry by other nations; thus France hoped to contain the English within a narrow strip along the Atlantic seaboard. In 1699 d'Iberville arrived on the Mississippi Gulf Coast to establish the first permanent European settlement in Mississippi.

The Nineteenth-Century Canadian patriot-politician Augustin-Norbert Morin (1803-1865), of the Hincks-Morin Administration 1851-1854, and the MacNab-Morin Ministry 1854-1855, descended from a paternal uncle and a maternal aunt of the first Joseph Morin, son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet, who came from Canada and on 2 June 1778 married Louise Ladner daughter of Nicolas Ladner and Marie Anne Madeleine Pacquet. (See August 1972 MCH&GS magazine, Page 19, for quotation of this marriage record from the Mobile, Alabama, Catholic Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception; for Morin genealogy, see French Canadian and Acadian Genealogical Review, Summer, 1968.)

Nicholas Christian (Ladner) was granted Spanish title to Cat Island on 1 August 1781, after Nicholas made affidavit that the Island had been in his possession, and actually occupied by him, for "...the past thirty-five years..." since about 1746. (Pages 16 and 17 of "Mobile Translated Records," Deed Book I, Mobile County, Mobile, Ala.)

On November 20, 1785, six children born of the marriage of Joseph Morin (1st) and Louise Ladner were baptized "...in this Parochial Church of New Orleans..." now St. Louis Cathedral. While the mother of these six children is recorded in these baptismal records as "Luisa Paqui," subsequently recorded marriages of at least three of these children, and records of baptisms of their children, as well as other ecclesiastical records, leave no doubt that she is actually Louise Ladner, daughter of Nicholas Ladner and Marie Anne Madeleine Pacquet. (20) The six children of Joseph Morin and Louise Ladner who were baptized on 20 November 1785 were:

"Nananet born Nov. 19, 1779
Josef born Nov. 6, 1778
Maria Jose born (illegible) 14, 1782
Josef (again!) born Nov. 18, 178? (hole in page)
Maria Juana born Oct. 20, 178?
Pedro born November 17, 1784." (21)

Pedro's (Pierre in French, Peter in English) baptismal record is Act 1227, Page 397 of Baptismal Book I, St. Louis Cathedral Archives, and reads, "...on the twentieth day of the month of November of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-five, I, the undersigned assistant Cure of the said Parish supplied the sacred ceremonies of baptism according to the rites of the Holy Mother Church to an infant boy who is of the color white, born on the seventeenth day of November, this past year, and who has been given the name Pedro, legitimate son of Josef Morin and of Luisa Paqui. And standing godparents Luis Juan Galabat and Maria Juana Laforain and in evidence I have signed the above day, month and year as given, /s/ Fr. Josef de Xeres."

Pierre Morin's sister, "Maria Josefa Morin" (French: Marie-Josephe

Morin), born in 1782, "...minor and legitimate daughter of Josef Morin and Louisa Ladner" was married on the 13th day of October 1802 to "Juan Bautista Ladner, legitimate son of Santiago (Jacques) Ladner and Maria Juna Karcaux..." and this marriage is recorded in the archives of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Mobile, Alabama. When three of the children of Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner were baptized (Maria Ursula born 12 January 1804, Maria Clemencio born 19 December 1805, and Margarita Constanza born 14 August 1812), Marie-Josephe Morin's mother was recorded in their baptismal records as "~~Louisa Paqui~~" or as "Louisa Paquet." However, when Juan Valerio Ladner born 14 May 1814 and Manuel Ladner born 22 January 1822 were baptized, as children of Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner, on these two baptismal records Marie-Josephe's mother is properly recorded "Louisa Christianne" (Ladner) on the first, and as "Louisa Christiana" (Ladner) on the second. The baptismal records of five other children of Marie-Josephe Morin and Jean Baptiste Ladner show no grandparents. These five other children are: Jean Baptiste born 6 October 1807, Marie Mercier born 26 March 1810, Angelique Theotine born 7 September 1816, Antonio Alfonso born 22 February 1824, and Clara born 3 July 1826. (22)

Another child of Joseph Morin and Louisa Ladner, Joseph Morin (2nd) was married 7 October 1806 to Margarita Panguinet, "daughter of Pedro Panguinet and Maria Cadet Frederic." Joseph Morin (2nd) is recorded in this record as "Joseph Maurin son of Joseph Maurin and of Louisa Christiana, native of Deer Island." (No. 26, Page 9a, Vol. III, Marriages, St. Louis Cathedral.) Witnessing this ceremony were: "Pablo Cabrera, Esteban Duranteau" (or "Duvairnare"?), "Benito Bompin, Ignacio Flores, Claude Francisco Buhourd D'Argi."

In St. Louis Cathedral Archives, Book of Baptisms II (1786-1796), Page 52, Act 303, there is recorded, "...I, the undersigned assistant Cure, solemnly baptized with the pure and Holy Oils, according to the rites of the Holy Mother Church, a small girl, of the color white, who was born on the seventeenth day of August of this present year (1788) and has been given the saintly name Margarita, the legitimate daughter of Pedro Panquinet and of Maria de la Fonten (la Fountain?). Standing godparents were Santiago Marchese and Maria Luisa Fonten, and in faith I have signed the above day, month and year, as given," ("first day of the month of September, 1788").

Unless otherwise indicated, all following records are from the Archives of the St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans, Louisiana:

Baptism of Joseph Ovesbury(?) Morin, born 1809 to Joseph Morin and Marguerite Panquinet. (Baptismal Book 6, Page 136b)

Baptism of Celeste Zelina Morin, "...aged about five years, legitimate daughter of Joseph Morin and of Marguerite Panginet his wife...godfather and godmother being Joseph Marquis and Claudine Dargin, the two residing out in the country..." 23 April 1817. (Book of Baptisms 8, Page 105, Act 547.)

Recorded on the same date (Act No. 548, Book of Baptisms 8, Page 105) is the baptism of Claire Marguerite Morin "...age of three years and one half, the legitimate daughter of Joseph Morin and of Marguerite Panginet his wife, the one and the other natives and residents of this Parish. The godfather and the godmother being Basile Caslence(?) represented by Francois Cassanaive and Helene Morin..."

Marriage Register No. 8, Page 102, records the marriage of Marie Morin and Andre Fournier, witnesses Pierre Debuys and Jacques Lefaure, 20 February 1840;

Marriage Register No. 8, Page 103, records the marriage of Celina Morin and Pierre Hervai, witnesses Francois Caillavet and Joseph Morin, 20 February 1840;

Marriage Register No. 8, Page 104, records the marriage of Joseph Morin and Virginia Fayard, 20 February 1840, witnesses Francois Caillavet and Pierre Hervai.

The three preceding marriages, like some others listed herein, may be ecclesiastical validations of previously contracted marriages.

On 13 February 1836, there was baptized "Emile Celestin Ladner born on the 13th day of the month of April past, of the legitimate marriage of Mr. Augustin Ladner and of Dame Claire Morin his wife, the father and mother natives of Biloxi...the paternal grandparents of the newly baptized are Mr. Joseph Ladner and Dame Rose Fayard and the maternal grandparents Mr. Joseph Morin and Dame Marguerite Panginette. Standing godfather and godmother: Mr. Pierre Giraud and Dame Adele Ladner." (Book of Baptisms 15, Page 23, Act 59.)

In Baptismal Book 15, are found also the following:

Page 171: Augustin Ladnair born at Biloxi the 11th of August 1836, son of Augustin Ladnair and Claire Morin; sponsors Jacques Fayard and Rose Fayard, baptized 13 September 1836; also recorded in Sacristy Book. Baptism of Whites (1835-1836) Baptisms at Biloxi;

In Baptismal Book 17, Page 138, Act No. 433, there is recorded the Baptism of Clement Ladner born 16 August 1838 of Celestin Ladner and Clair Morin, baptized 20 February 1840.

On the 1840 U. S. Census records for Hancock County (Harrison County was carved from Hancock County in 1841) a "Mrs. Margaret Morin" is listed between Joseph Morin age 30 to 40 and a Pierre Harvey. In the 1850 Census for Harrison County is "Mrs. Joe Morin," age 70, seemingly head of a household; residing with her appear to be Emile C. Ladner, 13 male, Clement Ladner, 12 male, Lennarde LaForce(?), 22 male, Francis Morin, 35 male, Victoris Fayard, 15 female, and a Celestine Fayard, 22 male, and possibly two other persons whose names we cannot decipher from the microfilm of the Census.

Records of the following additional children of Joseph Morin (1st) and Louise Ladner have been found: (1) Pupona Desideria Luisa Morin, (2) Pelagia Morin, (3) Helena Morin, and (4) Pierre Morin III, our ancestor:

(1) Pupona Desideria Luisa Morin married on 7 January 1807 "...Gilberto Christiano, native of this city, legitimate son of Juan Bautista Christiano and of Francisca Fayard." The bride is shown in this record as "...a native of this church parish, legitimate daughter of Joseph Morin and of Luisa Ladner...in the presence of witnesses, Don Alexo LeSsasier, Carlos Favre, Ygnacio de Flores and Maria Luisa Christianne, aunt of the contracting, and in faith I have signed /s/ Fr. Antonio de Sedella." (Book of Marriages 3, Page 11b, Act 32.)

One child, Marta, born 2 August 1809, was baptized 18 March 1812, as "...daughter of Gilberto Ladner and Luisa Morin, natives of Bay Saint Louis..." and the paternal grandparents are listed in this record as Juan Bautista Ladner and Francisca LaLanzette; the maternal: Joseph Morin and Luisa Christianne. (Baptismal Book 7, Page 14b, Act 77.) Martha Ladner married Maximillien Bourgeois son of Valentin Bourgeois and (another) Marie Ladenere; on 15 July 1829 a son, "Maximilien, aged fourteen months, legitimate son of Maximillien Bourgeois and of Marthe Ladenere..." was baptized, maternal grandparents recorded as "Gilbert Ladenere and Pouponne Marain." (Baptismal Book 13, Page 90, Act 393)(23)

(2) Pelagia Morin married Jean Baptiste Karquox (Carco), "...of Cat Island who was son of Nicolas Karcoux and Catarina Ladner..." (See KARQUOX, Page 6, "Genealogical Data from Records of the Diocese of Louisiana and the Floridas" as published in the Louisiana Genealogical Register, Vol. XIX, No. 1, March, 1972, published by the Louisiana Genealogical and Historical Society, P.O. Box 335, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 70821.)

(3) Helena Morin married Basilio (Basile) Ladner. One child, Monica Ladner, was born 4 May 1816, and when baptized the maternal grandparents were recorded as "Joseph Morin and Luisa Christianna"; the paternal grandparents as "Jean Baptiste Ladner and Francisca Fayard." (Baptismal Book 9, Page 38b, Act 243.)

(4) Pierre (Spanish: Pedro; English: Peter) Morin, born 17 November 1784, whose baptismal record was previously quoted, married Judith Nicaise daughter of Marcial Nicaise and Louise Bautista Christian, on 25 November 1805. This Pierre Morin is the first Pierre Morin of this direct lineage in the Gulf Coast area; he is the third Pierre Morin of this direct lineage in North America; he is of the fifth generation of this direct lineage in North America.

Pierre and Judith's marriage record translates: "Today, the 25th, on Monday, of November, the year 1805, I Mr. Juan Franco Vaugeois, the Parochial Priest (Curate) of the Church of Our Lady of Conception of Mobile, visiting Pass Christian and having because of lack of time, special permit of His Excellency Bishop of this province, dispensing with the three admonishments, we find no impediment, neither civil nor pre-arranged agreement, ...espouse by means of words in that they made thereby a true marriage, the following: Pedro Morin, legitimate child of the deceased José and of Luisa Ladner, and to Judith Nicaise, legitimate child of Marcial and of Luisa Fizot, both natives of this Parish, with the consentment of the parents and in the presence of the witnesses Mr. Felipe Saucier and Mr. Felipe Chesne, and so as to attest it is signed with the witnesses and it is signed in the Marriage Folio which was executed at that place, or at that time: Signed Juan Franco Vaugeois, Philip Saucier, Phillipe Chesne. And so that it attests that it be transferred here today on the 29th of the month of December of the same year as I signed it. /s/ Juan Franco Vaugeois." (Entry No. 48, Page 102B, Marriage Records Book No. 1, Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Mobile, Alabama. Translation from the original Spanish by Dr. Edouardo Scheel, Department of Foreign Languages, University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, Mississippi.)

Note that in the record quoted immediately above, Judith Nicaise is referred to as legitimate child of Marcial Nicaise and of "Louisa Fizot," while she is actually a daughter of Marcial Nicaise and of Louisa Bautista Christian who was a daughter of Maria Luisa Fisseaux (Fizot, Fisseau, Phisot, etc.) and Bautista Christian. Judith was baptized "...on this first day of November of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-nine...the legitimate daughter of Marcial Niques and of Luison Cristian; Godparents being Jose Niques and Constanca Valentin (or Valerrian?) and I have signed the above day, month and year as given, /s/ Fr. Luis Guiges." (Book of Baptisms II, Page 86, Act 584. See also the marriage record of Judith Nicaise's parents, Act No. 562, Page 139, Marriage Vol. II, marriage of "Marcial Miguel (Nicaise) son of Juan Bautista Miguel and of Maria Neo"(Marcial Nicaise son of Jean Baptiste Nicaise and of Maria Meaut sometimes also Miot) and of "Luisa Bautista Christian, daughter of Bautista Christian and of Maria Luisa Fisseaux.")

Here is probably a good time to inform the reader--if he or she does not already know--that there appear to have been in the Mississippi-Alabama-Louisiana coastal area, by the year 1800, at least four different Louisa, and Maria Louisa, Ladners, and perhaps four John Baptist, or Juan Bautista, or Jean Baptiste, Ladners. (The marriage of one Maria Luisa Ladenaire to Francisco Bourgeois was validated 31 August 1803, at Bay Saint Louis; Act 640, Page 154, Marriage Book 2 (1784-1806), St. Louis Cathedral; record in possession of Jerry and Debbie Heitzmann. See also Louisiana Genealogical Register September 1971 issue, page 207, "BOURGEOIS, Francisco and Maria Luisa LADENAIRE".) This Maria Luisa Ladner who married Francisco Bourgeois and the Louisa Bautista Ladner who married Marcial Nicaise would be sisters.) If your dear reader cannot keep those within the records here summarized separated, perhaps you may sympathize with a poor researcher attempting to do so in the interests of accurate research

The practice of our ancestors which gave us so many Louisas, and Marie Louisas, and Jean Baptistes, Josephs, and Pierres, also helped to make necessary the custom of conferring almost at birth, a pet or nickname--a "dit"--on a new member of the family. And, not infrequently, as the child's personality developed, another nickname or "dit", suggestive of a real or imagined personality trait, came to be used. These customs have enormously complicated efforts of many researchers to differentiate between family members--even between generations. These nicknames were often, and still are in some families, carried through life and they frequently found their way into staid and solemn ecclesiastical and civil records. Thus we may find, e.g., a Jean-Jacques baptized in 1818 and because he already had an uncle Jean-Jacques known however as "Belon," his marriage in 1840 is recorded under the name "Cherie" or "Sherry," and we find a Henriette known to the visiting missionary priest alone by her baptismal name, while to all others throughout her entire life she is known only by the affectionate "Aimée".

What a wealth of mental images are evoked by some of these nicknames--"dits": Sa Petite (Marie Louise), Uncle Gros (Denis, or Deonie), Uncle Rache (Aristide), Darlie (Elizabeth), Feo, LeCat, Bebe, Nan, and some others perhaps not so complimentary but found useful by the family members to quickly identify and differentiate between for example Joseph's Joseph, Cousin Lucien's Joseph, and Tante Ursule's Joseph, all of whom may have lived within the same or adjoining congenial households.

On October 16, 1811, a "Juan Bautista Morin, native of Natchitoches, son of Juan Bautista Morin and of Catarina Levasseur, married a Susana Lachaume native of St. Marcos of San Domingue, daughter of Juan Lachaume and of Maria Magdalena St. Jure," and on 31 July 1814, a "Joseph Morin widower of Martha Noireau, native of Normandy, son of Simon Morin and of Marguerite Gaigne," married "Catherine Victoire Dubroca daughter of Francois Dubroca and of Francoise Aubert, natives of San Domingue." (St. Louis Cathedral Archives Marriage Register 3 (1806-1821), pages 103 and 147.) It is easily seen from the parents' names that neither of these Morins is closely related, if at all, to the Joseph Morin (1st) of Canada who was the son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet and who married Louise Ladner 2 June 1778. Also, on 18 September 1836, "...at Biloxi..." a Louis Honore Moran, born at Biloxi on 23 October 1835 of the legitimate marriage of Mr. Pierre Moran and of Elizabeth Gerand his wife..." was baptized by a priest from New Orleans. The godparents were "Mr. Louis Florian Hermann and De. Adelle Herman of this city of New Orleans." (St. Louis Cathedral Archives, Baptismal Book 15 (1836-1838), Page 171.

SOME MORAN RECORDS

HEBERT - MORIN

Contributed by Dr. John L. Moran, Portsmouth, Virginia

The descendants of Joseph Morin 1st of Canada who on 2 June 1778 married Louise Christian (Ladner) of Cat Island are, through his mother Madeleine Boulet (1693-1765), also descendants of Louis Hébert (c1575-1627) who is honored today throughout Canada as Canada's first colonist, first farmer, and first jurist.

Louis Hébert was, like his father, a Parisian apothecary. In 1604, when he was 29, Louis Hébert accompanied Sieur de Monts and Samuel de Champlain to Acadia to establish in 1605 the first French outpost, Port Royal, in what is now Nova Scotia, Canada. Hébert served as the apothecary of this expedition, cultivating medicinal herbs during his three-year stay in Port Royal.

When Port Royal was abandoned, Hébert returned to France, sold his property, gathered his family, and on 11 March 1617 embarked again for New France. When he arrived in Quebec, he was given only seven acres of land instead of the promised fifteen, and every effort was made by the Sieurs de Caen to thwart his agricultural efforts, since it was feared he might attract other families and this would interfere with the fur trade with the Indians.

Hébert persisted, however, and he became the first colonist of Canada. He was the first man to think in terms of settling families in Canada. With the help of some Indians he built a cabin on the bluffs of Quebec City, overlooking the St. Lawrence River. This cabin remained, until 1632, the only private dwelling in Quebec City. Hébert began clearing his land and planting his small farm. He grew medicinal herbs and dispensed his medicines and skills to the French and Indians alike.

The perseverance of Louis Hébert, his zeal and determination received their reward: The King gave him, in title of fief noble, the land which he had begun clearing in the upper city of Quebec and with it a grant of land on the Charles River.

In 1627 Louis Hébert fell from a scaffolding and died from lack of care in the bitter winter weather of Quebec.

Samuel Eliot Morison says, in his "Samuel Champlain, Father of New France," that, "The Héberts were not only the first laymen to settle at Quebec, the pilgrim father and mother, as it were, of the future colony; they stuck to the end and lived out their lives in the Shadow of the Rock." Morison also says, "He (Louis Hébert) deserves to be bracketed with de Monts and Pont-Grave as one of the most important founders of Canada after Champlain."

A monument to Louis Hébert, first colonist, stands in Quebec City in front of the City Hall. Hébert Street runs behind Laval University. The Jesuits were granted the property next to Hebert's farm in 1617. Hébert's larger holdings, finally granted by the Viceroy of the King in 1623, included the area of the present Basilica, the Seminary, and Hébert and Couillard Streets in Quebec City. His other lands along the St. Charles River were granted in 1626.

Following his death in 1627, Hébert was buried in the Recollect Cemetery in Quebec. In 1678, his bones, still in their cedar coffin, were transferred to the vault of the newly erected Recollect Chapel.

Louis Hébert's wife was Marie Rollet. They had three children, Anne, Guillemette, and Guillaume. Guillemette married, in 1621, Guillaume Couillard de Lespinay. Their son, Louis, born in 1629, became the third Seigneur of Riviere-du-Sud, Province of Quebec. In 1733, his son, also named Louis, granted land to Denis Morin (1694-1768) father of the Joseph Morin 1st who came to colonial Louisiana.

Guillaume Hébert married at Quebec, 1 October 1634, Helene Desportes, daughter of Pierre Desportes and Francoise Langlois. Their daughter Francoise Hébert, baptized 27 January 1638, married Guillaume Fournier on 20 November 1651. Francoise Fournier, baptized 2 May 1671, daughter of Guillaume Fournier and Francoise Hébert, married Jacques Boulet, son of Robert Boulet and Francoise Grenier, on 21 April 1686.

Jacques Boulet and Francoise Fournier were the parents of Marie Madeleine Boulet of St. Thomas Parish, Riviere-du-Sud, whose contract of marriage to Denis Morin of St. Pierre, Riviere-du-Sud, Montmagny County, Province of Quebec, was executed before the Notary Abel Michon on 20 November 1718.

Their son, Joseph Morin 1st, following the death of his mother on 27 April 1765, and of his father 20 September 1768, left Canada and on 2 June 1778 his marriage to Louise Christian (Ladner) was recorded in the Marriage Register of what is now the Catholic Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Mobile, Alabama.

Next issue, Dr. Moran describes some early Canadian and Acadian historical sites which he visited on a tour of eastern Canada in 1972, all of which are also associated with the ancestral migratory trail of this Morin-Moran family whose descendants are so numerous in the Gulf Coastal area.

In June of this year (1973) your Editor and her family toured eastern Canada from Kingston, Ontario, through Montreal, Quebec City, the Gaspé Peninsula, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia and Cape Breton. In the Montreal area we visited the birthplace of the French-Canadians d'Iberville and Bienville who established the first permanent European settlement on the Mississippi Gulf Coast in 1699. We obtained copies of the 1653 civil marriage contract of their parents, Charles Le Moyne and Catherine Primot, and a copy of the 1661 baptismal record of d'Iberville, and some other material pertaining to this family whose sons played so important a role in Mississippi's history.

In Quebec City, from the Canadian National Archives, we obtained a copy of a 1733 map depicting French settlements in the Mississippi Valley, and bearing a notation, "Belocchy abandonne en 1730." Another map, undated, terribly distorted and profusely illustrated, presents an amusing picture of an early mapmaker's efforts to portray the Gulf Coast.

From the National Archives in Quebec City, we obtained also a copy of a detailed map of the Quebec City area in 1709, showing the names of hundreds of land grantees, and the locations of their grants. Both sides of the Saint Lawrence River at Quebec City, and the Isle of Orleans as well, are shown. Some names on this map familiar to researchers of our own Mississippi Gulf Coast colonial archives are: Asselin, Belanger, Carriere, Delorme, Fleury, Fontaine, Fournier, Gravelin, Gregoire, Guillot, Jourdain, LaPointe, Leroy, Martin, Morin, Paquet, Rousseau, Roche, Rochon, Roy, etc.; first names are shown in some cases, oftener only a first initial.

All this, and other, material from our personal collection will be available for reference at the November 1973 quarterly meeting of the Mississippi Coast Historical & Genealogical Society in Biloxi.

SOME MORAN RECORDS

The following letter was written in August 1972 by Dr. John L. Moran of Portsmouth, Virginia, to the John D. Moran family of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, when Dr. Moran returned from a 7,000-mile journey to the "...lands of our ancestors," visiting various historic sites in eastern Canada where succeeding generations of this Morin-Moran family are recorded as having sojourned between 1660 and 1770.

Because many of today's Mississippi Gulf Coast residents are of French-Canadian ancestry, it is believed that Dr. Moran's descriptions of some of the most historic locales in Canada will be of interest to our readers; his letter is reproduced here with his permission.

Portsmouth, Virginia
August 25, 1972

To Mr. and Mrs. John D. Moran & Family
Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Dear Gloria & John, Marie and Anita:

Our 7,000-mile pilgrimage to the lands of our ancestors has ended. We have traveled from Mississippi to Nova Scotia and have satisfied our desire to see all the places where our line of Morans has lived since the first Pierre Morin came from France to Acadia around 1660.

After visiting south Mississippi, the Gulf Coast, and Cat Island,⁽¹⁾ we returned to our home in Virginia and from there we set out to Canada to find the lands where our first Acadian and Canadian ancestors had lived, married, had children baptized, and died. Our first stop in Canada was in the office of Mr. Roland-J. Auger, Head of the Genealogy Section in the Ministry of Cultural Affairs, the National Archives, P.Q., Quebec City. Mr. Auger, with whom we had corresponded frequently, was away in Montreal; however, his assistant Mr. Gingras took us in hand and showed us all the materials they have in their library. There are numerous records of Canadian Morins dating from the 1600's, including those known to be ours, in their files, but we were unable to find any record there at that time of the Joseph Morin son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet who we knew had married Louise Ladner at Mobile on 2 June 1778. However, on returning home to Virginia I secured some material suggested by Mr. Gingras, and I have found Joseph listed as a witness at the wedding of his sister Francoise to Pierre Pellerin recorded by the Notary Pierre Rousselot April 9, 1749.⁽²⁾

(1) -- accompanied by Mr. Nathan Boddie, present owner of Cat Island. -- Ed.

(2) -- Joseph Morin, Denis (II), Antoine, and Jean-Marie Morin, all brothers of the bride, are recorded as witnesses on 9 April 1749 at the signing of the civil marriage contract between their sister, Marie-Francoise Morin, "...daughter of Denis Morin (I) and Madeleine Boulet..." and Pierre Pellerin (son of Alexander Pellerin and of Jeanne Gaudet) widower of Genevieve des troismaisons, at St. Pierre-du-Sud, Montmagny County, P.Q., Canada. The original of this marriage contract is in the National Archives at Quebec City. The ecclesiastical validation of this marriage was recorded 14 April 1749 at St. Pierre-du-Sud; Tanguay, Dictionnaire Genealogique des Familles Canadiennes, Vol. VI, Page 275. -- Ed.

Mr. Gingras is a full-blown genealogy devotee, having documented his own family completely, on both sides, with names, dates, documentation, etc., for 16 generations. He spent several summers in France in order to find the material. He suggested that we look at the works of Nicolas-Charles Levesque, who served in Montmagny, Quebec, from 1752 to 1795, for some record of our Joseph Morin's activities there between his 1749 witnessing of his sister's marriage and his appearance by 1778 in the Gulf coastal area. Unfortunately an "inventaire" of the Notary Levesque's works has not yet been published. The Notary Michon's "Inventaire"⁽³⁾ which lists documents for the period 1709-1749 is, however, like the Notary Rousselot's, replete with references to our Morin family.

Our second stop was at St. Jean Church on the Isle d'Orleans in the Saint Lawrence River, to meet Father Eugene Morin the parish priest. We had become acquainted with him by corresponding as we were searching for Boulet records at St. Jean Church. We went to his church in the afternoon of Sunday hoping to find him since we had not made an appointment. Fortunately he was there and was just completing a christening ceremony. The young parents with the infant were driven away in an ornately decorated horse and rig after the ceremony. We were told that this was "something special."

Father Eugene was gracious and hospitable as we introduced ourselves. He is in his late fifties, I judge, and was at one time a seminary dean in Quebec City. He speaks English quite well. He invited us to the rectory for tea. His descendency is through Jean Morin, a brother of our Denis, father of the first Joseph Morin who left the Quebec area and married Louise Ladner in 1778 at Mobile, Alabama. Father Morin knew a little of his lineage, but was unaware of the article, "The Morins of Acadia," from the Summer, 1968 "French Canadian and Acadian Genealogical Review." I have mailed him a copy of the French edition.

We searched the cemetery at St. Jean for familiar names, but found only that of Paquet. That name was very prominent on the Island. The men were all pilots, but the graves we saw were not old.

We found no traces of the names Nicaise, Cuevas, or Ladnier in either the cemeteries in Quebec or in Mr. Auger's office. The guide booklet on the Port Royal "Habitation" built in 1605 by Champlain in Nova Scotia tells the story of the 1564 French expedition to Florida commanded by Rene de Laudonniere who built Fort Caroline on the St. Johns River. I wonder about that name. Could it be that Laudonniere became L'Adnier, then Ladner?⁽⁴⁾

We had already ascertained that our Morins had come from Acadia to Quebec City around 1690 and had subsequently settled around St. Pierre-du-Sud, northeast of Quebec City, yet on the south coast of the Saint Lawrence River. On Monday we drove to St. Pierre. Riviere-du-Sud is a district named for the river of the same name, a small, beautifully blue river running parallel to and finally into the Saint Lawrence. St. Pierre is a small village about five miles from the town of Montmagny. The original church of St. Pierre, in which many Morins were married in the 1700's, had been built on the banks of the Riviere-du-Sud. We found the original site, now on the farm of a Mr. Blanchet. Denis Morin, father of the Joseph Morin who came to colonial Louisiana by 1778, was involved in the planning of the original church, according to the records of 1721.⁽⁵⁾ The old St. Pierre

Cemetery is next to the present church. It is now a small memorial park. In this cemetery were buried some of the earliest Morins of this family, e.g., Denis Morin in 1768 after Madeleine his wife had been interred there in 1765. The bodies from the old cemetery were re-buried in 1919, but no identifications are possible for the oldest graves. (A few of the family names noted in this same cemetery by your Editor, in 1973, were: Morin, LeTourneau, Gagne, LaFlamme, Beaumont, Picard, Mercier, Blais, Couillard, Fournier, Talbot, Roy, Proulx, Simoneau, Collin, LeBlanc, Tardif, Samson, Cloutier, LeComte. Most of these older marked burials occurred in the first decade of the 1800's. -- Ed.)

There are still several families of Morins and Boulets and Fourniers in St. Pierre. We met and spoke with some Boulet children, one of whom spoke English. We later learned of at least three Morin families living in St. Pierre. One, Octave Morin, is a grocer. His ad was on the back of the church "bulletin," along with that of Jacques Fournier, "Epicier Licencie," (licensed grocer) whose business occupies the building directly across the street from the St. Pierre church. We went to visit a Madame Morin, a widow who lives with her son and who is 93, spry, alert, and still full of life. Through a translator she informed me she had 19 children. My astonished reply was, "Magnifique!" Madam Morin knew nothing of her husband's ancestry.

While in St. Pierre, we were extremely fortunate in meeting a Mademoiselle Agathe Beaumont, a nurse from Quebec who was back "home" visiting for the day. When she learned of the purpose of our visit she became interested and spent the afternoon as our guide, showing us the entire area. She speaks English quite well, and she proved to be our key to all the doors of St. Pierre we wanted to enter.

Mademoiselle Beaumont is a direct descendant of Jean Baptiste Couillard de L'Espinau, Seigneur of the Riviere-du-Sud, whose family granted land to Pierre Morin II and Denis Morin I, and to the other Morins in the St. Pierre area in the early 1700's. Couillard's sons succeeded him, were granted lands, and came to be known by their grants such as Jean Paul de Beaumont. The Couillard was dropped and Beaumont came to be the name. Mlle. Beaumont's copy of the Couillard de Beaumont history had a map of the Riviere-du-Sud seigneurie. This made it easier for us to pinpoint the Pierre Morin II grant. It was not marked, but we ascertained from the wording of the grant that it was just south of the present-day Berthier, on the Belle-Chasse line. "We" included Mlle. Beaumont, her father and mother, uncle, brother, two sisters, and numerous friends who just "happened" to pass by to see why the "Americans" were in town. The Morin holdings were on the broad, beautiful lands between the Saint Lawrence and the Riviere-du-Sud. It is still farm land. We inquired about land values and found them to be as high as here in Virginia.

Leaving St. Pierre, we crossed the Gaspé Peninsula north of Mont Joli. We had to go as far north as Matane because of construction. We followed the Matane River until we crossed the low range of hills, then we followed the Matapedia River to the head of the Bay of Chaleurs. Our goal was the settlement known as Restigouche where the Morins were settled in 1688 by Richard Denys following their departure from Beaubassin, Acadia.⁽⁶⁾ The site of the Denys trading post, the Micmac Indian village, house and stores, were on what is now called "Old Mission Point" or "Old Church Point" just a few miles west of today's Campbellton, New Brunswick. The Morins were there about two years before they moved to the Quebec City area following the death of Pierre I in 1690.

After an overnight stay in Campbellton, we departed for Nova Scotia, for there in Acadia we were to find the first settlements of our "Morins of Acadie," who were the forefathers of those who subsequently went to Quebec, and of Joseph I who went to the Gulf Coast.

As one enters Nova Scotia from New Brunswick, across a broad, flat marshland area, he comes immediately to a small hilly area rising out of the tidal marshes. On this area a welcome center has been established by the Province of Nova Scotia. This welcome center was built upon the site of the Acadian village of Beaubassin, the second home of the Morins from whence they were exiled in 1688 because of the tragedy of their son, Louis. Beaubassin was burned by the British during the Acadian Expulsion. At that time there were 3,000 people living there. Of course there were no Morins in the Acadian Exile of 1755 since the Morins were in the Quebec City and St. Pierre areas by 1702. Herbin's "History of Grand-Pre" records the first Pierre Morin as an early inhabitant of Port Royal and Beaubassin in his discussion of the earliest Acadian settlers during the 1600's.

The Acadians were farmers. They diked the sea marshes for meadows and farms. Immediately behind the buildings of the welcome center, the Canadian Railroad cuts through a hillside. When the cut was made a hundred years ago, the remains of an Acadian cemetery were discovered. There is an historical marker here, placed on the site of the village church, Notre Dame de Bonsecours, in which the second Pierre Morin and Francoise Chiasson were married on 8 November 1682. (For a translation of this 1682 marriage record, see Page 17 of the August 1972 MCH&GS quarterly.--Ed.)

Our next stop in Nova Scotia was in Grand-Pre, the Acadian village which was one of the ports of exile for the Acadians in 1755. It is now a National Park. This is where the first Acadians diked the marshes to make farmlands. This was our third visit over the years to Grand-Pre and we always feel a deep kinship with the Acadians who had lived and been deported from there. It is the locale of Longfellow's "Evangeline." When we first visited Grand-Pre fifteen years ago when our children were young, we bought a copy of "Evangeline" and read it aloud to them at night.

Our ultimate destination in Nova Scotia was Port Royal, the site of the earliest French settlement in Acadia. We went first to the "Habitation," the site of the first DeMonts-Champlain settlement in Port Royal. The "Habitation" is a reconstruction of the buildings erected there by the French in 1605 and burned by the English in 1613. The apothecary for this expedition was a Parisian named Louis Hebert. His name is on the door of one of the rooms of the "Habitation." After returning from our trip we learned that Louis Hebert is one of our Canadian ancestors. Marie Madeleine Boulet, wife of Denis Morin and mother of Joseph Morin I, was a great, great grand-daughter of Louis Hebert. (7)

The first settlement at Port Royal was burned in 1613 by the English under Samuel Argall of Virginia. By 1635 the French had relocated Port Royal five miles up the Annapolis River, on the opposite shore. The present-day town of Annapolis Royal rests upon the site of this second Port Royal, the Acadian village to which the first Pierre Morin of France came as a colonist and married Marie Martin who had come from France with her parents. Their wedding took place in the village church around 1661. The courthouse of Annapolis Royal is now on the site of that old church. We drove along the one street leading along the high ground of the village and knew that along this same street our first Acadian ancestors had walked more than 300 years ago. We had, indeed, gone back to our beginnings in this land.

We are much richer for having searched for and found the homes of our ancestors--Deer Island, Cat Island, Biloxi, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, St. Pierre, Restigouche, Beaubassin and Port Royal. We wish for you the same pleasure.

Sincerely,

John L.

The receipt of the Telegraphic dispatch of the 22^d of April, I replied to, afterwards by due course of Mail, I received a letter of the same date directing me to make a report to your office after giving notice to all the parties interested in the Claim of the Widow Morin, showing the nature of any Claim or Claims to the land in question; and to send on a plat of Survey of Widow Morin with information as to the reasons why it has not been heretofore officially reported to your office. The reason I did not reply to your letter of the 22^d of April, at the time of its reception, I was in bad health; agreeable to the instructions therein contained, I gave the parties, who were interested in the Morin Claim, to attend on the 5th Inst at the Land office Augusta Mississippi, and exhibit the Evidence of their Claims to the Widow Morin Claim, now in Controversy, agreeable to your instructions on that subject. A Gentleman by the name of John B Toulmie, attended agreeable to notice, who appeared to be interested, and was invested with full powers to represent the interested parties, and after he examined into matters in this office relative to the Morin Claim, Mr. Toulmie stated that there were two or three persons interested in the Claim, owing to the distance they resided from the place where notice was given, they had no knowledge of the Claim in Controversy, and that El Monte Esqr was gone on to Washington City with all the papers that would be Evidenced in the Case, and requested that the matter of investigation should be postponed until

The 20th of July next, which proposition was agreed to. the copy of J. B. Hunt's Memorial dated Washington City May 20 1852 addressed to Butterfield Esq. Commissioner of the Subject of Widow Morin's Claims marked A. Blank Patent Certificate to be filled up in the name of Widow Morin marked C, and a Certified Copy of plat and Certificate from the Genl Land Office Jackson Mississippi signed N. C. Hairvard and Certified to by James A. Horn Esq. Secretary of State Ex-officio Surveyor General, dated at Jackson May 8th 1852, marked B enveloped with your letter of the 4th Inst. was received. It appears that the whole matter relative to the investigation of the Claim of the Widow Morin, at this time in addition to what has been done, is for me to explain to you as near as I can, from the information and means I have before me, the reason why, the Case of Widow Morin has not been reported to your office, at an earlier date. The true reason I presume is, that at an early date, in locating lands and investigating titles to land in this section of Country, the Commissioner of the Genl Land Office, instructed the Surveyor Genl. at Washington, that in all cases where ~~there~~ a claim was thought to be of a doubtful character, and fraudulent, to have it laid down on the Town-ship maps in dotted lines, which is the manner, in which the Morin Claim is marked on the maps in this office. I herewith enclose to you a Diagram of the same. See 2^d part of Laws and opinions page 894. 896 & 7. One other reason, my predecessor was fond of his Case, and in every instance performed as little labor as he could possibly get along with, and retain office. I have discovered since the conflict, in the Morin Claim, by examining old papers, that was boxed up, and of which I was informed by my predecessor S. S. Hawze Esq., that these boxes contained old papers, and the business to which they had referred had been long since settled, and that I would have no occasion to examine them: and among those papers I find several bundles of plats & certificates, (in duplicates) for a large number of surveys, among which is the Mary Purask, and Widow Morin Claims of each one of those I herewith enclose to you; S. S. Hawze Esq. having been furnished with these Plats & Certificates from the Surveyor General's office Jackson Mississippi, could have them correctly laid down on the Maps of this office, which would have prevented all this trouble, and expense that is now occurring.

Therefore I excuse myself as I had no knowledge of the Existence of these plats of surveys, and finding the Morin Claim in dotted lines as an Evidence of its being a rejected claim, and this opinion strengthened by finding it not recognized by the tract books; those are the reasons why at the time I received Mr. Paulston's application to make a location, I wrote on to your office to know, whether it was subject to pre-empt Entry, or not; and in reply I was informed that it was.

I herewith enclose Patent Certificate for Widow Morin Claim marked C together with Plat an certificate signed James A. Horn Secretary of State Ex-officio Surveyor General marked B. You will please instruct me relative to these Plats of surveys above alluded to, they are Approved August 19th 1832 signed Gideon Fitz Surveyor South of Tumpsee. and Certified to by C. A. Bradford. June 1st 1847. If it would meet your approbation I will forward to your office one Copy of each Survey and then you will know which of those Claims has been Confirmed, and all that has been, should be. Correctly laid down on the Township maps of this office; and when that is done, it would enable me to avoid making erroneous locations

I am very respectfully your obt. Servant

John L Allen Register

Butterfield Esqr
Commissioner of the Land Office

P.S. I have notified Mr Charles N Chaulston that the Main Claim was confirmed to the original Claimants and requested him to change his location upon lands subject to final Entry to which he declines for the present.

Explanation

The black lines shaded blue represent the claim of Widow Morin, correctly protracted from the field notes approved June 15, 1840 by Sur. Genl. Howard.

The black dotted lines show the protraction from a copy of Carver's field notes of Nov. 3 1830 of the Mary Parish claim which it will be perceived does not close by some 10 or 12 Chains, and does not conform to the lines of the claim as laid down on our township plats. The error is supposed to arise from the omission of a corner and distance.

The pink lines show the limits of the Mary Parish claim as laid down on the Township plats.

June 29, 1852 The above private claims of Mary Parish and Widow Morin are entered in tract book then appear to be no interference with either

Mr. La Sere of Louisiana makes enquiry relating in regard to the Mary Parish claim as is any interference with it by any other claim and if so what is the nature of such interference"

my Parish 3 land claim situate on the Bay of St. Louis and adjoining to Widow Morin's land claim

James Butterfield Esq.
Commissioner of the general land office of the United States

Sir

Permit me as the agent of the assignees of Widow Morin in a certain land claim confirmed to said Widow Morin, by an Act of Congress passed the 8th day of May 1830, entitled, An Act to confirm certain claims to lands in the district of Jackson Court house in the State of Mississippi; designated as Warrant N^o 672. Certificate N^o 17 claim N^o 17 Report N^o 5; to represent to you that said claim was surveyed and located by Corver and Morin on the 30th day of October A.D. 1830 on fractional Sections N^o 1. 2. and 11 of Township N^o 9 S. of Range N^o 14 West; but owing to some causes beyond the control of those whom I represent, this claim though surveyed as above stated and though returns of said survey were made immediately after it was completed to the Surveyor general of the State of Mississippi; yet owing to the removal of that officer from his office shortly afterwards and to an interregnum which occurred in the office of Surveyor general South of Tennessee during several years, no action was had upon said claim until the year 1840 at which time being personally in Jackson Miss. I called the attention of Volney S. Howard then Surveyor general South of Tennessee, to this claim; he had a search made in the office and the returns were found, but without any certificate of their having been examined. Upon my application Mr Howard examined and approved the survey and delivered to me a duplicate of the survey certified with his own signature as having been examined and approved on the 15th of June 1840. From that time those interested being satisfied that the survey of their claim had been approved by the proper officer, and having no control over the actions of the officers of government, they relied that those officers would strictly discharge their duties, and as they had no means within their reach of ascertaining what had been done in that respect, they rested satisfied expecting that a patent would issue in course of time and complete their title. But sometime in the latter part of April 1841 their security was badly disturbed by the intelligence they received that their lands appeared upon the maps at the Land office in Augusta Miss. public lands liable to be entered and afterwards that they had actually been entered by speculators. These lands being highly improved as summer retreats are of great value, the improvements alone being over forty thousands dollars in value the proprietors were surprised and alarmed at this intelligence, knowing that I was better acquainted with the whole course of that business than any one else, they applied and requested me to use all diligence to have these matters set aright. I immediately had a telegraphic dispatch sent to your office through the Hon^{ble} A. G. Brown requesting all proceedings to be suspended respecting the lands included in the fractional sections N^o 1, 2, 4 & 11 of T. 9 S. of R. 14 W. until inquiry be made into the situation of things in reference to them, and I sent an express to the land office at Augusta, to ascertain how matters stood there, from that office I was informed that there was nothing showing that the widow Morin's claim existed at all, beyond its having been confirmed to her for 640 acres on the West side of the Bay of St Louis, that nothing there showed that it had ever been located or surveyed. Some person there, perhaps one of the officers, exhibited a letter purporting to have been signed by Mr Butterfield Commissioner of the general land office, stating there was nothing in the general land office, showing that the fractional sections N^o 1, 2, 4 & 11 of T. 9 S. of R. 14 W. were not public lands liable to be entered. Finding that nothing could be done there, I went to the Surveyor general's office in Jackson Miss. there I found that the survey of Widow Morin's claim had been duly entered and recorded in the record books of the private claims but could not discover that any thing more had been done from that office. I then requested the Secretary of State of the State of Mississippi in whose charge the Surveyor general's office is placed, to compare the duplicate of the survey approved by Mr Howard, with the record of the widow Morin's claim, and if he found they agreed to give me a certificate to that effect under the great seal of the State, which he accordingly did. Such is the history of that claim up to this time, by it you will perceive that it is not owing to the negligence of the Claimants if it has not been properly passed through the different offices, they did not know and could not know unless by mere chance the situation in which their claims were placed and they would yet be ignorant of it had not those land speculators disturbed them. To satisfy you of the correctness of the foregoing statements I herewith submit to your inspection the following duly authenticated papers, to wit:

N^o 1 A Duplicate of the survey approved by Mr Howard Surveyor General on the 15th of June 1840

- N^o 2. Affidavit of ~~John~~ Carver Senior Showing that Widow Morin's claim was located on the 30th of October 1830 on fractional Sec. N^o 1, 2 & 11 of T⁹ S of R. N^o 14 W. and including the Original improvement
- N^o 3. Affidavits of Elmer Carver Junior and of John D. Fayard Chain Bearers who measured all the boundaries of said claim on said sections and at said time
- N^o 4. affidavit of James Johnston Showing that said survey was made at the time stated.
- N^o 5. Affidavits of Francis Lader, Bernard Bourgeois and Maximilien Bourgeois Showing that said survey includes the original improvements.

I hope that these papers will satisfy you that all that could be done by the parties interested, and the Surveyor to locate said claim and have it properly placed among the established claims, was done, and that if it remains unsettled it is owing to causes they could not control and for which they cannot be blamed; though they are the sufferers.

Will you please, should you, as I have no doubt you will recognize the right of the claimants to the fractional sections mentioned, after you have examined these papers, as there is now no Surveyor general South of Tennessee, and as I understand that no patent can issue, without a patent certificate first be granted by the officers of the land office of the district in which the land lies, I ~~request~~ ^{request} instruct the officers of the land office at Augusta Miss. to place upon the maps in their office the claim of Widow Morin upon fractional sections N^o 1, 2 & 11 of Township N^o 9 S. of Range N^o 14 West and then having given to said claim its proper number on the township map, that they issue immediately a patent certificate in the name of Widow Morin and forward the same to your office so that the patent can be obtained without further delay.

Respectfully Your most obedient Serv^t

Hancock County - } Before me the undersigned a Justice of the peace of said County came Elisha Carver Senior who upon his oath says, that he was born in the State of ^{Connecticut} ~~Massachusetts~~ and is now seventy five years of age, that he came to the Bay of St Louis sometime in November 1812 and has resided there ever since, that when he came to the Bay of St Louis, Widow Morin was then residing on that tract of land, now designated as Section 21 of township 10th 9 South of Range 14th West and continued to reside thereon for several years afterwards.

Deposent on his oath further saith that in 1830 number of Certificates and warrants of Survey from the Commissioners of the Land Office at Augusta, Me, confirming land claims to number of persons, under an Act of Congress, entitled an act to confirm certain claims to lands in the district of Jackson Court House in the State of Mississippi, passed May the 28th 1830, were placed in his hands with instructions to locate them on the land they had originated, in the most compact manner, including the original improvements and not interfering with any other established claims, Among them was Warrant N^o 672, Certificate N^o 17 Claim N^o 17. Report N^o 5 Confirming to Widow Morin 640 acres of land on the west side of the Bay of St Louis. That according to his instructions on the 30th day of October 1830 he had Widow Morin's land claim surveyed in his presence, by Julius C. Cabot a Surveyor then deposent's partner in surveying public lands, and located on Sections 1. 2. & 11 of township 10th 9 South of Range 14th West in the most compact manner and including the original improvement, and not interfering with any other established claims, and that he made a report of said survey to the then Surveyor General of the State of Mississippi in due time; and deposent further saith that the line running between the land claims of Widow Morin and Mary Parish was an agreed line between the parties interested and run North 45° West and that said claim was otherwise bounded by sectional lines and the sea shore

Dear Mrs. Fensler:

This letter is in reply to yours of July 10, 1975 regarding the family history of the Morans and the Gollotts.

I am sorry I cannot help you with the Gollotts as I have done little research into the history of the Gollott family. I do not believe the name "Grelot" is the same as Collott, however, although at the time I wrote your sister Mrs. Beckham I simply did not know.

As for the Moran family, my husband and I have done considerable research into that name, almost entirely into contemporary records from the year 1661 on down to and through the 1800's.

The Marie-Josephe Morin (family name is now spelled Moran in the Gulf Coastal area, although it is still properly Morin in Canada) whom you mentioned in your note was not a daughter of an Indian, nor was she related in any way by blood to any Indian. Marie-Josephe Morin, born in 1782, was baptized on 20 November 1785 along with brothers and sisters at the St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, Louisiana, one of her brothers being Pierre (Peter in English; Pedro in Spanish) Morin, my husband's direct ancestor who married Judith Nicaise at Pass Christian, Mississippi, in 1805. We have a certified and translated record of Marie-Josephe's baptism from St. Louis Cathedral, and it was recorded in the Baptismal Register reserved for "Whites". All of her children for whom we have similar baptismal records from St. Louis Cathedral had their baptisms recorded in registers reserved for "Whites". It is a well-known fact that the priests did not hesitate to so state if a parent, or even a witness, at a baptism was a "sauvagesse" (Indian), or was whole or part Negro, even an eighth Negro.

Marie-Josephe Morin who married Jean Baptiste Ladner 13 October 1802 was a daughter of Joseph Morin 1st and Louise Christian Ladner, and Louise Christian Ladner was a daughter of Nicolas Ladner and Marie-Anne Magdeleine Pacquet. Joseph Morin 1st was a son of Denis Morin and Madeleine Boulet of St. Pierre-du-Sud, Montmagny County, Quebec Province (same as our State), Canada. My husband and I visited this little town in 1973 and we saw in the church there the registers which showed Joseph Morin's parents' deaths in 1765 and 1768. We have a certified photostatic copy of the 2 June 1773 marriage record of this first Joseph Morin and Louise Ladner, as it was recorded in the Mobile Cathedral, and that record shows the names of her parents and of his parents as well.

SOME EARLIEST MISSISSIPPI FAMILIES

by Mrs. John D. Moran

Eighteenth century records tell us that at least the following families were residing on the Mississippi Coast before the year 1800: The Ladners, the Morans (Morin), Nicaises, Favres, Bourgeoises, Fayards, Sauciers, Carcos, LaFontaines, and one Cuevas family. Some of these family names originally came here in the very early 1700's under French colonization (1699-1763)--the Ladners, Sauciers, Nicaises, and probably the LaFontaines, to mention a few. After the British assumed control of the Mississippi Coast in late 1763, however, some of these old Roman Catholic French and French-Canadian families found it difficult to remain here and own property, until passage of the Quebec Act by the British Parliament in 1774. The Quebec Act guaranteed Roman Catholics under British rule freedom of public worship and confirmed the possession of their ancient churches and revenues. There is evidence that some individual members of these, and other, families moved from the Mississippi Coast under British rule, going to Spanish New Orleans, the Slidell area, and elsewhere, returning after 1781 when Bernardo Galvez claimed the Mississippi Coast for Spain.

On a faded and hardly legible 8 June 1777 Militia List of the Opelousas, Louisiana, area one may find a possible Joseph Moran, Baptiste Saucier, Joseph Silvestre, two Trahans and a Francois Veillion--all of whose names later appear on the Mississippi Coast -- but I have failed to positively identify any of the Coast's known early French residents as actual enlisted military combatants in the Revolutionary War for independence from England. There is no doubt, however, where their sympathies would have lain in any conflict between the British and an adversary.

In late 1814, when the British approached Bay St. Louis enroute to the Battle of New Orleans, the sons, husbands, and grandsons of these old French and French-Canadian families hurried to enlist in the Mississippi Militia just as soon as the British were sighted off the Mississippi Coast. Those from the Bay St. Louis-Wolf River-Pass Christian area who enlisted in Captain Joseph Vellio(n)'s Company of the Mississippi Militia on the 13th of December 1814, included: Charles, Francois, "I.", and J. B. Favre; Laur't Fayard; J. Labat; Bazile, Carlos, "E.", Francois, and John Ladner or Ladnier; C. Lafontaine; Jean Baptiste, John, and Pierre Morin (Moran); Charles Nicaise; "P.", Philip, "T.", and T. F. Saucier; Joseph Vellio(n) and I. B. Toulme. Newcomer Elihu Carver, married to Justine Nicaise a daughter of one of the oldest families in Mississippi, also enlisted.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Mobile, Alabama, whose baptismal and marriage record entries begin under date of 1704, and the younger St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans count among their treasures many baptismal, marriage, confirmation and death records of these old Mississippi families during the 1700's and up to the early 1840's when the first of the existing Catholic churches on our coast were established. Members of these families are identified in in many of these records during the 1700's as having been born on Cat Island, at Bay St. Louis, on Deer Island, etc., etc. During

At that era, the priests who performed these ecclesiastical acts were ordered to record the places of birth, the names of the parents and, in the late 1700's, even the names of grandparents of persons being baptized or married. Separate registers were frequently maintained for those of non-European ancestry. Even witnesses were usually identified by ethnic designation.

According to at least one version of Dr. Flood's report in 1811, after he had claimed the Mississippi Coast for the Orleans Territory, he found the Mississippi Coast occupied by descendants of the French and Indians. This ambiguous statement has been interpreted by some later writers, and by some other persons with mercenary intent, to mean that Dr. Flood found the Coast's residents in 1811 to be of mixed French and Indian ancestry. I have found no reference in contemporary records, however, to any of these old French, French-Canadian and Spanish families as being of Indian ancestry. On the contrary, they are usually identified as, "...of the color white...and, in the records quoted here, the names of the parents are given in full, frequently the names of the grandparents as well. As a genealogist, I find it regrettable that many so-called "historians" seem ignorant of reliable sources of information on the Coast's settlers in 1811, and appear content to merely quote again the oft-quoted report of Dr. Flood.

In a relatively recent publication, the "Widow LaFontaine" whose estate in the 1800's comprised a major portion of today's Ocean Springs, is blithely referred to as "...a young woman of Indian ancestry..."!! She was, instead, Catherine Bourgeois daughter of Francois Bourgeois and of Marianne Fayard, born on the 9th of July of the year 1768, and her baptism on the 23rd of October 1768 is of record in the St. Louis Cathedral archives. Her husband was Louis Auguste LaFontaine, born on the 27th day of May 1762, and his baptismal record, like hers, gives the names of parents. They were Pierre LaFontaine and Marie Dubois. The marriage record of Louis Auguste LaFontaine and Catherine Bourgeois, who was much later the "Widow LaFontaine", exists in the Mobile Catholic Cathedral.

How many of today's Coast residents recognize an ancestor in the above record? Or in this one?

"On the 28th day of May, one thousand eighteen hundred and two, I Don Juan Vaugeois, Pastor of the Church of Our Lady of the Conception of Mobile, solemnly baptized in the house of Pedro Fayard at Bay St. Louis...twins who were born on the 8th day of April...of Valentin Bourgeois and Marie Luisa Ladner...named Francisco and Maximiliano. Paternal grandparents Francisco Bourgeois and Mariana Fayard; maternal grandparents Juan Bautista Ladner and Marie Luisa Fisseau..."

All these quotations are from certified photocopies of the original records. "Pedro" Fayard is the Spanish for the French Pierre Fayard, or the English Peter Fayard: "Juan Bautista" is Spanish for the French Jean Baptiste, or the English John Baptist. Note that the historic little town of Bay St. Louis was known in 1802 as Bay St. Louis; years later the area was temporarily Shieldsboro, then again

Bay St. Louis.

Philippe Saucier, to whom Dr. Flood handed a commission as Justice of the Peace in 1811, had been a Syndic under Spanish rule of the Coast. A Spanish Syndic was somewhat akin to our notary and judge. Philippe Saucier was married to Marie Louise Nicaise who was, as he was, a grandchild of early colonists under French rule of the Coast. Philippe's grandfather Jean Baptiste Saucier had been born in Quebec, Canada, on 4 December 1674, and had come to Mobile in December of 1699 from Canada via France with d'Iberville. He married in late 1704 to Gabrielle Savary, a "Pelican Girl," so-called because she arrived on the ship THE PELICAN along with twenty-two other marriageable young girls "of virtue" in the care of two Grey Nuns. Philippe's father, Henry Saucier, had been married in 1732 at Fort de Chartres in the Illinois Country to Barbe LaCroix of Quebec, Canada. Their son, Philippe Saucier who settled in DeLisle, Mississippi, was born 1 May 1747 and his baptism is recorded in the archives of the Mobile Catholic Cathedral.

Is it surprising that these early French were so widely traveled? They were, indeed, records of the 1700's showing that they went up and down the Mississippi River and back-and-forth along the Gulf Coast quite casually and frequently; by way of water, of course, as all-weather roads did not exist.

Philippe Saucier's wife, Marie Louis Nicaise Saucier, was a granddaughter of French colonials who had come to Mobile from the Parish of St. Benoist, France, a suburb of Paris, in the waning days of the John Law concessions. Marie Louise Nicaise Saucier's will, handwritten in French, was recorded on the 15th of October 1846 in Harrison County probate records, which also show the disposition of her estate including "...twelve slaves, seventy-two head of cattle..." and various real estate, most of which was purchased by "...Jacques Saucier, Henry Saucier, Ramon Lizana, Virginia Toulme, Cherri Dedeaux..."

Philippe Saucier's Spanish land claim, probably the grant of 16 July 1794 to a Philippe Saucier, lies along the north side of DeLisle Bayou, intersected on the north by the later claim of a son-in-law Jean Pierre Francois Marie "Chevalier" Dedeaux; on the west, at the northwest end of today's DeLisle bridge, is the Spanish claim of Berthelemy Grelot, granted 16 December 1793.

The records show that Philippe Saucier and Marie Louise Nicaise were parents of the following children, many of whose descendants reside today in Hancock and Harrison Counties: Jean Philippe, born in 1785 who married Marguerite Grelot, a daughter of Barthelemy Grelot; Eugenie, who married first Louis A. DeCalogne and second, on 19 February 1810, Jean Jacques "Belon" Dedeaux, a native of Castel Sarassin, Languedoc, France; Magdeleine, who married on the same day, 19 February 1810, to Jean Pierre Francois Marie "Chevalier" Dedeaux, like his brother "Belon" a native of France; Marie Louise who married 10 March 1814 Ramon Sebastiano Lizana, native of Spain; Victoire Uranie born 2 March 1793 who married J. B. Toulme, native of Santo Domingo; Lucille born 29 December 1795 who married Bertrand Lasabbe; and Basilice born 30 May 1798 who married on 11 February 1817 Jean Cassibry, native of Greece. There were possibly other children.

The venerable Jacques L'Adnier to whom Dr. Flood presented a commission as Justice of the Peace on his arrival in 1811 at the Bay of Biloxi was almost certainly the Jacques Mathurin L'Adnier, son of Mathurin Ladner and Ana Berda, whose wife was Marie Jeanne Carco, daughter of Nicolas Carco and "Josefa Cossin." The Ladners were here so early that by the year 1811 there were on the Coast at least two Jacques Ladners, two Francois Ladners, two Genevieve Ladners, four Jean Baptiste Ladners, and at least three Marie Louise and/or Louise Ladners.

This name, Ladner (variously spelled L'Adnier, Laudiniere, Lardnair, etc., etc., during the 1700's and into the 1800's) is frequently recorded in contemporary civil and ecclesiastical records as "...Ladner dit (meaning called, or known as) Christianne..." or as "...Christian dit Ladner...". Nicolas Ladner to whom the Spanish on 31 July 1781 granted title to Cat Island, made affidavit in his request for title to the island that he had been in possession of and had actually occupied the island since about 1746. It was granted to him in the name of Nicolas Christian. When his son Francois Ladner was baptized, the baptism was recorded in St. Louis Cathedral archives thus: "...6 January 1769, baptized with the ordinary ceremonies of the church Francois born on the 11 of November of the year 1766, of the legitimate marriage of Nicolas Ladnaire called Christiane, resident of Cat Island and of Madeleine Pacquier his wife...". Their daughter, Louise Ladner, married Joseph Morin (Moran) of Quebec, Canada, in Mobile, Alabama, on 2 June 1778, not quite two years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Louise Ladner is identified in that 1778 marriage record as "...Louise Christian legitimate and natural (meaning not adopted) daughter of Nicolas Christian resident of Cat Island and Dame Marie Anne Magdeleine..." Other records in our possession, some dated as late as 1815, give the surnames of individual members of this family as Christiane, Christian, and even as Christiano. It is this "dit," this nickname Christian, with the accent on the last syllable, from which the town of Pass Christian derived its name.

My research, however, has led me to believe that the present geographic area designated "Pass Christian" was not the site of Dr. Flood's 1811 raising of the flag and his presentation of a commission as Justice of the Peace to Philippe Saucier. It seems much more likely to have been at what is today known as DeLisle where Philippe Saucier's land grant was located, and where his home was situated. My reasons for believing this follow.

In a number of civil and ecclesiastical records, Philippe Saucier is called upon to administer oaths and act as witness in his official office of Spanish Syndic, and it is hardly likely he would have maintained an office five miles away from his home within the city limits of what is today Pass Christian. Some Spanish survey records from at least 1802 through 1809 refer to the entire Pass Christian-Long Beach-DeLisle area as "...Place called Pass Christian...District of Bay St. Louis..." and mention Philippe Saucier as witness, or as assistant, or as administrator of oaths, at royally-decreed surveys. On at least two occasions, in photocopies of survey transcripts in our possession, he administered the oath to Pierre Morin (Moran) and Jean Baptiste Nicaise, referring to them both as old inhabitants of "...this area..." Both these men lived on the northern shore of the Bay of St. Louis.

On a photocopy of a marriage record dated 25 November 1805, Philippe Saucier signs as witness when his wife's niece, Judith Nicaise daughter of Marcial Nicaise and Louise Fisseau, is married "...at Pass Christian..." to Pierre Morin (Moran) son of Joseph Morin and Louise Ladner. All these people were then residing in and around DeLisle.

And, on the 1814 Hancock County Tax Roll, Philippe Saucier is shown as "...situated at...Wolf River" as the DeLisle area was called a bit later in the first half of the last century. (Until 1841 Hancock County included what is today Harrison County.) On this same 1814 Tax Roll will be found only three names--Charles Asmas, Senior and Junior, and Victor LeCount--at "Pass Christian," although the free Negro Charlot is shown in other records as owning property at that time in what is today called Pass Christian. The property was given to him by his owner Julia LaBrosse, Widow Asmar, whose last husband was Francois Carriere. At least 37 names "situated" at "Bay St. Louis," appear on this 1814 Tax Roll.

Shown "situated" at Wolf River--the area known today as DeLisle, Bayou Portage, Pineville-Cuevas, and Pine Hills (Oblates' Seminary) in addition to Philippe Saucier, Senior, are the following persons on the same tax roll: Madam "Bartolomy" who was probably Marie Jeanne Nicaise, widow of Berthelemy Grelot; Julian and Jean P. Saucier; Pierre Moran who married Judith Nicaise on 25 November 1805; John Moran, wife unknown; Gilbert Ladnier who married Luisa Desideria Moran on 7 January 1807; Bazile Ladner whose wife was Helene Moran; Jean Baptiste Ladnier who may be the Jean Baptiste Ladnier who married Marie Josephe Moran on 13 October 1802; and Charles DeLupon, Phill Maturon, Michael Dragon, and Antonio Bayard.

At "Old Chimneys" (today's Gulf Park College area) on this 1814 Tax Roll are: Joseph Moran (the Second) who on 7 October 1806 was married to Marguerite Panquinet, daughter of Pedro Panquinet and Maria LaFontaine, a granddaughter of Pierre "Cadet" (which means "the younger") LaFontaine; Jean Baptiste Carco whose wife was Pelagia Moran; Claud Ladnier, married to Ana Maria Francoise LaFontaine, widow of Pedro Panquinet; Soisint Peare; Lewis Gouidot (Guillot?): George B. Dameron; Joseph Clowers; and Joseph Labatt. Joseph Labatt, Senior, married Marie Therese Krebs; Junior married Josephine Nicaise.

Only the following names are shown as situated at, or owning property at, "Bay of Bloxia:" Lewis Fayar(d), Jacob Rion (Ryan); Jaco Ladnier; Jack N. Ladnier; Joseph Ladnier; Madam Fayar(d); John Ladnier; and Antonio Gor(?).

The Moran family name was originally Morin, anglicized in the latter half of the last century to Moran in the Gulf Coastal area. It is still properly Morin in Canada, France, Santo Domingo, Portugal, and in some branches of this family now around St. Louis, Missouri,

Mrs. John Edward Krebs
586 No. Willow Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi

Dear Mrs. Krebs:

My husband, John Daniel Moran, and I have been attempting to trace the histories of some of the old French names of early settlers of Harrison-Hancock Counties, and have learned that among his ancestors are the Ladners, Nicaises, Grelots, Dedeaux, Girard, Meaut, etc., and Saucier.

We saw your name listed in an old issue of the Mobile Deep South Genealogical Quarterly as having an interest in the Ladners and Krebs.

We have authoritatively documented my husband's lineage back to the Pierre Morin I, dit Boucher, born in Normandy c1634, and who married in Port Royal, N.S., Canada c1661, as listed on the enclosed data sheet marked "Enclosure No. 1". In addition to the certified abstracts listed on this enclosed data sheets, we have some other certified abstracts of baptismal and marriage records, as well as some notes copied from records of both the Mobile Cathedral and the New Orleans Cathedral pertaining to Morans (Morin until about 1875) Nicaises, Ladners, Sauciers, etc.

My husband's direct ancestor, Joseph Morin (born in Canada, probably, and definitely born to Denis Morin and Madeleine Boule(t)) married Louisa Ladner (Mobile Cathedral record) in 1778. We do not have any record of his whereabouts between c1740 to 1778, although some older members of our family recall a tradition that he came to Paincourtville, Louisiana, and then to the Miss. Gulf Coast when he married Louisa Ladner. In attempting to find some record of how, when, or why he came to the Miss.-Ala.-La. Gulf Coast area, we have collected notes on anything we found which was of authoritative records which even sounded like Morin, Moran, Morand, Morant, Maurin, Mauraun, etc. One of these notes is an extract from Page 23 of the "Mobile Translated Records", copied by me from the original in Mobile County Courthouse in July of this year, as follows: "...the year 1783....Francis Krebs, husband of the widow Mrs. Sossie, daughter of Mrs. Mauraun, most respectfully represents to your Excellency that Mrs. Mauraun, the mother of your petitioner's wife has possession of and occupied Round Island by permission of the French Governor, Mr. Bienville, in the year 1,745, 30 leagues from Mobile....." Next there is an affidavit in the "Mobile Translated Records" by Chastang, Senior,

Dubroca and Duret, ... "old inhabitants of this Town" who then certify that "...Round Island was in possession of the Widow Mrs. Mauran, the Mother of Widow Saucie, wife of the petitioner (Francis Krebs) without title for the same in the year 1,752, and that....." /s/ Chastang, Senior, Dubroca and Duret.

Do you have any idea who may have been Francis Krebs' wife, who was a widow Saucie, daughter of Mrs. Mauran?

If you can tell us anything at all we would be very grateful.

We would be glad to share with you any of our Ladner information--or any other family name we have which may interest you--any of the names previously mentioned in this letter, as well as some Cuevas, a little Fayard, a little LaLancette, etc. Since there were so many Ladners at such an early date, and we don't know which line you are interested in, may we request that you let us know a bit more specifically which?

Our Joseph Morin who married Louisa Ladner (Louisa being daughter of Nicolas Ladner and Mary Anne Magdelaine Pacquet (or Paqui, or Pasquier)) had at least the following children:

Joseph who married Margaret Panguinet*
Pierre, or Peter or Pedro (our ancestor) who married Judith Nicaise*
Maria Josepha who married Juan B. Ladner (of Santiago & M. Carcaux)*
Luisa, Desideria who married Gilbert Ladner (also Puponne Morin??)
Helena Morin who married Basilio Ladner (of J.B. & Francisca Fayard)

*-Records of marriage in our possession. Records of baptism of Luisa, Desideria and Puponne's children, and of Helena Morin and Basilio Ladner's children, are available from St. Louis Cathedral.

We also have a certified baptismal record of Francois Ladnaire called Christian, born Nov. 11, 1766, of legitimate marriage of Nicolas Ladnaire and Magdeleine Pacquier, his wife, and some other authoritative notes as well as a few more Ladner certified records.

In addition, we have accumulated at least a ream of undocumented material pertaining to the alleged Indian ancestry of Mary Josepha Morin who married John Baptiste Ladner and produced children around Bayou LaBatre; however, we have been unable to find any records of authority to support this claim of Indian ancestry. If you have anything authoritative in this regard, or if you know of anyone who has we would very much appreciate anything you can tell us.

Again, we will be happy to share our material with you or anyone else interested in serious genealogical research. We live just off Hi-way 49, in Hattiesburg, just west of the Coca-Cola plant, and are in the phone book. We'd be happy to have you visit.

Yours truly,

Architect's creation to adorn White House tree

► Mississippian Quint Moran among 600 honored

By JEFF HARDY
Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — A Mississippi architect is among more than 600 of his colleagues nationwide whose work will be showcased on the White House's official Blue Room Christmas tree and in other holiday exhibits at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Quint Moran, 31, of Vancleave, about 10 miles north of Pascagoula, said he decided to take on the project after some encouragement from members of the Gulf Coast chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Using this year's White House Christmas theme, "Twas the Night Before Christmas and all through the House," Moran fashioned "Inverted Santa In A Fireplace," a 10-inch-by-5-inch paper-and-wood fireplace with a porcelain

Santa hanging upside down.

It took him three weeks to finish the ornament, which also includes a slot in the bottom where a light can be placed to represent a fire.

"I cut each little brick. That's what took so long," said Moran, who is an intern at Slaughter/Allred/McNabb, a Pascagoula architectural firm.

In following a First Family tradition, AIA members were asked to create imaginative ornaments depicting images from Clement Moore's poem, "A Visit From St. Nicholas," about one family's preparations for the holiday on Christmas Eve. The result is an almost room-to-room representation of the poem's house, made with everything from carved birch and basswood to papier-mache and hand-sewn fabric, said AIA president Chet Widom.

"For adults these ornaments evoke the comfort of holidays past, at the

Among other contributions is one entitled "Not Even A Mouse," with the facade of a house and a back view revealing an interior wall with exposed wood studs.

Accident led boatbu

Joe Moran displaced his heart — literally — but found it again

By JIM PETTY

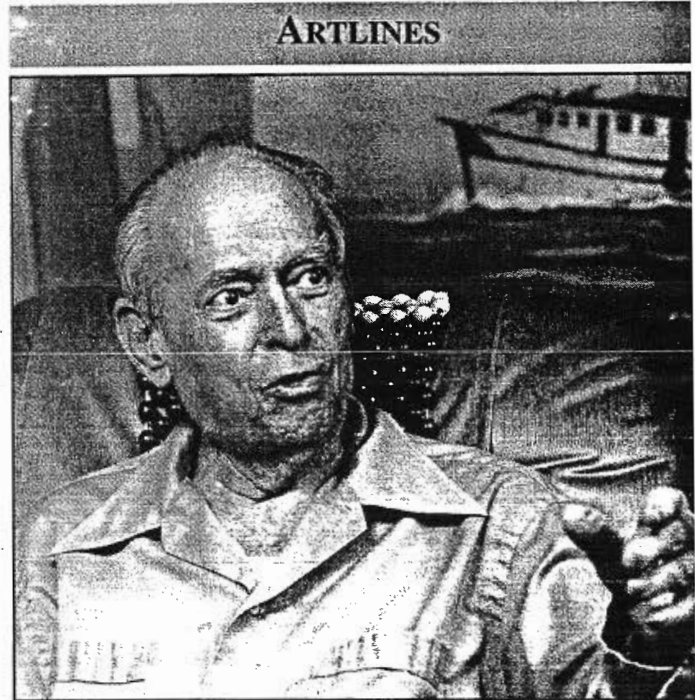

Special to the Mississippi Press

They called his Grandfather the "Mad Potter of Biloxi." The call him a "State Treasure." From presidents to senators, governors to collectors, Joe Moran has painted his way into the homes and hearts of many admirers. A true creative genius, Moran's paintings depict the deep passion he possesses for life on the Mississippi Gulf coast.

Born Dec. 6, 1915, to Frederic Alfred Moran and Clo Ohr, Moran was raised with one brother and two sisters in Biloxi. During his early childhood, Moran occupied his days with family chores, playing with his sisters, and spending afternoons at his father's boat works business.

Born into a family of boat builders, Moran developed a keen interest in boats. The Moran family roots can be traced back to the landing of the French explorer d'Iberville in 1699, on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. It was there that Moran's great great grandfather, a brickmaster, debarked and began building boats. Since that time, the family has continued building boats. According to the family records, sloops, schooners, pleasure boats, sailboats, yachts, and power boats were all part of the Moran repertoire.

At age seven, Moran painted his first boat ribbon name "Julia Delacruz" on the stern of a Biloxi schooner. Moran continued working at his father's business and was given the responsibility of mixing paints, finishing wood, and varnishing boats. Over the next five years, Moran's knowledge of boats progressed from mixing colors to design, construction, and racing. When he was 12, Moran's school buddies stole wood from the high school bleachers, so that Moran could carve them into wooden sailboats for racing.

Moran's interest in boats continued throughout his late teens and into his early adult years. However, boats were not Moran's only interests. During the early thirties, he began boxing as an amateur. While sparring with boxing legends Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunie, Moran toyed with the idea of turning professional; an idea that his mother made sure would not come to fruition.

Excitement always seem to follow Moran — whether it was rumbling with rival high school boys or against rival boat crews. Even while working with his uncle Ojo Ohr, excitement was close at hand. Legend has it that while Ohr and Moran were demolishing a building in Fountain Bleau, Moran had an unpleasant encounter with the infamous crime figure Bonnie Parker.

It appears that a friendly discussion between Moran and Ms. Parker ended abruptly when Moran stated that he was the better marksman. After staring down the barrel of Ms. Parker's rifle, Moran finally agreed that indeed Ms. Parker was the better marksman.

During the mid-thirties, while employed at his father's business, Moran was introduced to Dorothy Davis, and a six-year courtship began. On Feb. 10, 1939, during the late evening, Moran and Ms. Davis decided to get married. After tracking down the priest, who was playing poker with Moran's brother and future sister-in-law, the couple were finally married at 11 p.m.

After the wedding, Moran and Ms. Davis went to their respective homes and told their parents that they were married. For three weeks the newly married couple lived apart before renting their first home in Biloxi. In 1939, Moran quit his father's business and set out to claim his fortune in various business dealings.

Moran ventured back into the boat business at the start of World War II. In 1942, Moran was hired at Higgins Inc., of New Orleans, to help design the blueprints for the U.S. Navy P- boats. After spending three year at Higgins, Moran decided to open his own boat works business. In 1947, with his business thriving, a hurricane swept through the Gulf Coast, destroying his entire company. Over the next few years Moran and his wife rebuilt the business, only to suffer yet another setback.

In 1959, while helping his son turn over a boat, Moran lost his balance and severely injured himself. While lifting and turning the boat, Moran damaged his main artery leading to his heart and disengaged the heart itself from the pouch which holds it. While he was in the hospital, Moran was asked by his doctor to sketch a boat. The doctor was so impressed with Moran's natural ability that he entered him in a home study art course.

In 1962, after completing the art course and learning that his physical condition would not allow him to continue building boats, Moran began studying art under the nationally known New York portrait artist William Steene.

During his first few months under Steene, Moran amazed his teacher with his artistic ability. Steene recognized that the years Moran spent working and designing boats were merely a foundation for his real vocation — art.

In 1966, after studying art for three and a half years, Moran decided to open his first art gallery. Then on Aug. 17, 1969, another tragedy struck the Moran family. Hurricane Camille swept through the Gulf Coast, destroying Moran's Art Gallery and some 200 paintings. During that same year Moran moved his art studio to its present location. For four hard years Moran rebuilt his business, teaching, painting, and selling his work.

During the mid 70s Moran became a nationally acclaimed artist. In 1974, the Smithsonian Institution requested three graphic sketches from Moran for their permanent collection.

Moran thus became the second member of the family to have a permanent collection on display.

In 1975, Moran's graphic depicting the French explorer D'Iberville's ship "Le Marin" was presented to the French consul in Washington. During that same year Moran was selected to exhibit his work in Paris. Over the next 14 years, winning numerous art awards, and conducting various showings; Moran's passion for painting was at its pinnacle. However, in 1990, Moran suffered a heart attack which forced him into semi-retirement.

Today, with over 2,000 paintings completed, Moran's paintings have reached virtually every corner of the United States, Germany, and France. With his paintings in continuous demand, Moran has captured the hearts of many art collectors. To paraphrase his admirers, "to own an original Moran is to own a piece of Mississippi."

Brother Lepre delves into Indian intermarriages

Brother Jerome Lepre, a member of the faculty at Brother Martin High School in New Orleans who is descended from several old Coast families, explores the traditional stories of Indian intermarriage among many of the early settlers on the Coast in the November issue of "The Journal of Mississippi History."

Brother Jerome discusses these stories handed down from father to son, and provides facts uncovered in his research to back his theories about these Indian ancestors.

He primarily discusses the Indian women "Emashapa" or Frances Emily Baudrau, who is associated with the Lafontaine and Ladner clans, and Noatima, or Marguerite Laforce, who is connected with the Moran family.

Lepre has done extensive research to determine whether Noatima, or Marguerite Laforce, was the wife of Joseph Morin, son of Joseph Morin of Canada and Louise Ladner, daughter of Nicholas Ladner and Marianne Paquet, a statement made in family tradition.

He has turned up no evidence to support this fact and instead has found documents of marriage between Joseph Morin II and Marianne Paquinette of New Orleans and baptismal records of several children.

The time element of the marriage and the birth of the children also cast doubt whether the legendary Noatima was a first wife of Joseph Morin, according to Brother Jerome's research.

He has uncovered in the 1850 census, however, a Leonard Laforce living with Mrs. Joseph Moran, as the only clue to a connection between the Laforce family and the Morans (Morins).

The census, however, shows no relationship for these families and no other document found links the Noatima or Marguerite Laforce with this family, he says.

In the case of Emashapa, however, he puts forth numerous citations of this woman under various names which give some substance to the stories of her link to several Coast families.

Brother Jerome also gives data on Magdaleine, the natural daughter by an Indian woman of Joseph Baptist Baudrau dit Graveline, who eventually settled in Jackson County.

Magdaleine married Pierre Paquet and they were the parents of Marianne, who married Nicholas Ladner.

This very excellent article may be read in the journal, which is probably found in many Coast libraries, or can be purchased at the single issue price of $2 by writing The Mississippi Historical Society, Box 571, Jackson, Miss. 39205. The annual membership fee in the organization, which includes a subscription to the quarterly is $8.50.

Mrs. J. E. Krebs
4102 Willow Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi 39567

Dear Mrs. Krebs:

Thank you for your recent letter and for the material you enclosed. We are returning herewith that portion you requested be returned.

Yes, we own a copy of Dale Greenwell's book, Twelve Flags. There is little if anything within it, however, pertaining to the Morans which agrees with the facts as recorded in authoritative records such as those of the archives of St. Louis and Immaculate Conception Cathedrals and the U. S. Census records.

We believe Greenwell's "Notima" was actually Margaret Panquinet, daughter of Pedro Panquinet and of Maria Cadet Frederic, whose marriage to Joseph Morin (II) son of Joseph Morin and Louise Ladner is recorded in Marriage Vol. 3, Page 9a, No. 26, of St. Louis Cathedral archives. A Margaret Morin is shown on the U. S. Census (1840) records, apparently head of a household, living between Pierre Harvey and a Joseph Morin, (III), age 30 to 40. In the 1850 Census is found Mrs. Joe Morin, age 70, listed again as apparent head of a household; residing with her are Emile C. Ladner, Clement Ladner, 12 years, Francis Morin 35 years, Victor Fayard 15, Celestine Fayard 22, and others.

A Joseph Morin was born 1809 to Joseph Morin and Margueritte Panquinet, and his baptism is recorded in Bapt. Book 6, St. Louis Cathedral.

Mrs. Edith Moran, now deceased, says in her notes--copy of some in our possession--that a Celina, child of Joseph and her "Notima" married a Pierre Harvey, and a Celina Morin is recorded as marrying a Pierre Harvey on February 20, 1840, St. Louis Cathedral.

Again, Mrs. Edith Moran's notes say that a Clair Marie Morin married a Celeste Ladner, and this Clair Morin is a child of Joseph Morin and "Notima". In Baptismal Book 15, Page 23, #19, St. Louis Cathedral, on 3 February 1836 is recorded the baptism of Emile Celestin Ladner born 3 April 1835 of Augustine Ladner and Clair Morin, maternal grandparents given as Joseph Morin and Margueritte Panquinette, paternal grandparents given as Joseph Ladner and Rose Fayard, Adele Ladner the Marraine. A Clement Ladner, child of Celestin Ladner and Clair Morin was baptized 20 February 1840.

Mrs. Edith Moran's notes list the following children as children of Joseph Morin and "Notima":

- A Joseph born 1805, married Virginia Fayard and Caroline Ladner
- A Celina married Pierre Harvey
- A Clair Marie Morin married Celeste Ladner
- A Virginia Morin married James S. Young
- A Francois Morin married Catherine Fournier.

On the other hand, Greenwell says Joseph and "Notima's" children were Joseph, Francois, Virginia, Jean Baptiste, and Delphine.

A Jean Baptiste Morin, baptized 18 September 1836, was born at Biloxi August 6, 1836 as child of Joseph Morin and Virginia Fayard.

It is our considered opinion that one would do well to look long and critically at any Morin (Moran) hear-say information. Most of that which we have seen duplicated and distributed seems to have no basis other than a desire for financial gain because it is "remembered" by an old "Aunt" or old "Uncle" that Marie-Joseph Morin who married John B. Ladner was a child of a Choctaw Indian, or was sister to a Joseph Morin, or a Peter Morin, or a Peter-Joseph, (take your choice) who was either married to, or was child of a Choctaw Indian.

Marie-Joseph Morin who married John Baptiste Ladner was not a child of a Choctaw Indian female; nor was her brother Joseph Morin (II) who married Margaret Panguinet, and neither was her other brother, Pierre (or Pedro) who married Judith Nicaise 1805. These children were of Joseph Morin (I) and Louise Christian (Ladner) and Louise Ladner was sometimes shown as Louise Paqui, although her mother's name was Paqui (Pacquet, Paquar, Poqui, etc.) wife of Nicolas Ladner.

When Marie-Joseph's children Juan Valerio and Manuel were baptized, born 14 May 1814 and 22 February 1824, respectively, Marie-Joseph's mother is correctly recorded Louisa Christian (Ladner).

So, also was Judith Nicaise referred to in her marriage record as child of Marcial Nicaise and Louisa Fizot, tho' her mother's name was not Fizot, but Ladner, a child of Bautista Christian and Maria Louisa Fisseau.

The priests of this era--particularly Spanish priests--frequently suffixed the bride's actual maiden surname with that of her mother's maiden name--an old Spanish custom. Therefore, we have Marie-Joseph Morin sometimes referred to in the records as child of Joseph Morin and Louisa Paqui, and at other times as child of Joseph Morin and Louisa Christian (Ladner). So, too, we have Judith Nicaise recorded as child of Marcial Nicaise and Louisa Fizot, and as child of Marcial Nicaise and Luisa Christian. We have similar documents on others.

Incidentally, we have records of at least four Louisa Christians, (Ladners) by the year 1800 on the Mississippi-Alabama-Louisiana Gulf Coast, and Mrs. Lucille Mallon says there were by this time five John Baptiste Ladners.

The Marie Anne Magdelaine Paquet (also Paqui, Parquar, Pasquier, even probably Oqui, etc.) wife of Nicolas Ladner, and mother of the Louisa Ladner who married Joseph Morin I, was not a Choctaw Indian either. We, and others engaged in researching authoritative records instead of collecting depositions of hearsay "memory" are still collecting documentation on this Marie Anne Magdelaine Paquet and her family. She seems to have been born in the West Indies, in Santo Domingo possibly, and of course at the time of her birth a native of the West Indies was referred to as an "Indian" just as a native of Canada was referred to as a "Canadian" and an Acadian was a native of Acadie. (We realize of course that not everyone else is as interested in Morin-Moran genealogy as we are, and I do apologize for rambling on about the Moran ancestors. If you are interested, I would suggest you contact us later as we are in the process of documenting her baptism, and thereby determining when, and of whom, she was born. Her father was a Frenchman, of course.)

You mentioned that a Mrs. K. W. Wheeler is working on Saucier. If she has not seen and used the approximately sixty-page Saucier history compiled by Walter J. Saucier of North Carolina, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Saucier of Saucier, Miss., and Jack Belsom of New Orleans, Mrs. Wheeler is wasting time, effort and probably money. The Saucier genealogy compiled by those listed is authoritative, capable of documentation, and contains vital statistics on about every Saucier in history from Louis Saucier, age 32 in 1666 Canada census who married 21 November 1670 to Marguerite Gaillard dit Duplessis in Canada, and who was the father of Jean Baptist Saucier who was baptized 4 December 1674 and married by October 1704 at Mobile to Gabrielle Savary (Savarit), a "Pelican" girl, etc., etc., on down to many, many of the present-day Sauciers and their descendants.

We have so many documents--most of them original certified abstracts--that it would be impossible for us to supply copies of all of them. Perhaps we can drop in and visit with you in Pascagoula some weekend, bringing them with us, and copies can then be made by you or anyone else interested.

I am enclosing, however, copies of two of our certified abstracts of baptismal records from the St. Louis Cathedral Archives, New Orleans, Louisiana, inasmuch as I believe they will confirm some of my statements in this letter: (1) Baptismal record of Juan Valerio Ladner showing his maternal grandparents properly as Joseph Morin and Louisa Christianne (Ladner), and (2) Baptismal record of Emile Celestin Ladner showing his maternal grandparents to be Joseph Morin and Marguerite Panguinette.

We would welcome a visit from you and/or anyone else interested in our records. Copies of any of our records can be made at five cents per page here in Hattiesburg at USM Library; I am home most weekdays all day except for picking up school children at 2:30.

Thank you again, and with a sincere hope that we will be able to get together someday and share records, I am

P.S. Are your Stiglets related to Jan, Kim, and Renee Walters? My children attend school with them; a very nice family. I think Joanne Walters showed me a chart once, compiled by a Mr. Richard of Hattiesburg.

Mrs. John Edward Krebs
586 No. Willow Street
Pascagoula, Mississippi

Dear Mrs. Krebs:

My husband, John Daniel Moran, and I have been attempting to trace the histories of some of the old French names of early settlers of Harrison-Hancock Counties, and have learned that among his ancestors are the Ladners, Nicaises, Grelots, Dedeaux, Girard, Meaut, etc., and Saucier.

We saw your name listed in an old issue of the Mobile Deep South Genealogical Quarterly as having an interest in the Ladners and Krebs.

We have authoritatively documented my husband's lineage back to the Pierre Morin I, dit Boucher, born in Normandy c1634, and who married in Port Royal, N.S., Canada c1661, as listed on the enclosed data sheet marked "Enclosure No. 1". In addition to the certified abstracts listed on this enclosed data sheets, we have some other certified abstracts of baptismal and marriage records, as well as some notes copied from records of both the Mobile Cathedral and the New Orleans Cathedral pertaining to Morans (Morin until about 1875) Nicaises, Ladners, Sauciers, etc.

My husband's direct ancestor, Joseph Morin (born in Canada, probably, and definitely born to Denis Morin and Madeleine Boule(t)) married Louisa Ladner (Mobile Cathedral record) in 1778. We do not have any record of his whereabouts between c1740 to 1778, although some older members of our family recall a tradition that he came to Paincourtville, Louisiana, and then to the Miss. Gulf Coast when he married Louisa Ladner. In attempting to find some record of how, when, or why he came to the Miss.-Ala.-La. Gulf Coast area, we have collected notes on anything we found which was of authoritative records which even sounded like Morin, Moran, Morand, Morant, Maurin, Mauran, etc. One of these notes is an extract from Page 23 of the "Mobile Translated Records", copied by me from the original in Mobile County Courthouse in July of this year, as follows: "....the year 1783....Francis Krebs, husband of the widow Mrs. Sossie, daughter of Mrs. Mauran, most respectfully represents to your Excellency that Mrs. Mauran, the mother of your petitioner's wife has possession of and occupied Round Island by permission of the French Governor, Mr. Bienville, in the year 1,745, 30 leagues from Mobile....." Next there is an affidavit in the "Mobile Translated Records" by Chastang, Senior,

R.K.
Dubroca and Duret, ... "old inhabitants of this Town" who then certify that "....Round Island was in possession of the Widow Mrs. Mauran, the Mother of Widow Saucie, wife of the petitioner (Francis Krebs) without title for the same in the year 1,752, and that....." /s/ Chastang, Senior, Dubroca and Duret.

Do you have any idea who may have been Francis Krebs' wife, who was a widow Saucie, daughter of Mrs. Mauran?

If you can tell us anything at all we would be very grateful.

We would be glad to share with you any of our Ladner information--or any other family name we have which may interest you--any of the names previously mentioned in this letter, as well as some Cuevas, a little Fayard, a little LaLancette, etc. Since there were so many Ladners at such an early date, and we don't know which line you are interested in, may we request that you let us know a bit more specifically which?

Our Joseph Morin who married Louisa Ladner (Louisa being daughter of Nicolas Ladner and Mary Anne Magdelaine Pacquet (or Paqui, or Pasquier)) had at least the following children:

Joseph who married Margaret Panguinet*
Pierre, or Peter or Pedro (our ancestor) who married Judith Nicaise*
Maria Josepha who married Juan B. Ladner (of Santiago & M. Carcaux)*
Luisa, Desideria who married Gilbert Ladner (also Puponne Morin??)
Helena Morin who married Basilio Ladner (of J.B. & Francisca Fayard)

*-Records of marriage in our possession. Records of baptism of Luisa, Desideria and Puponne's children, and of Helena Morin and Basilio Ladner's children, are available from St. Louis Cathedral.

We also have a certified baptismal record of Francois Ladnaire called Christian, born Nov. 11, 1766, of legitimate marriage of Nicolas Ladnaire and Magdeleine Pacquier, his wife, and some other authoritative notes as well as a few more Ladner certified records.

In addition, we have accumulated at least a ream of undocumented material pertaining to the alleged Indian ancestry of Mary Josepha Morin who married John Baptiste Ladner and produced children around Bayou LaBatre; however, we have been unable to find any records of authority to support this claim of Indian ancestry. If you have anything authoritative in this regard, or if you know of anyone who has we would very much appreciate anything you can tell us.

Again, we will be happy to share our material with you or anyone else interested in serious genealogical research. We live just off Hi-way 49, in Hattiesburg, just west of the Coca-Cola plant, and are in the phone book. We'd be happy to have you visit.

Yours truly,

Mrs. John D. Moran

Mrs. Gloria W. Moran

Mrs. Gloria W. Moran, 75, a resident of Pass Christian, died Saturday, April 3, 1999, in New Orleans, La.

Mrs. Moran, a native of Taylorsville, was a long time Gulf Coast resident. She was a homemaker and a Lutheran. Mrs. Moran was former Commandant of the Ft. Maurepas Society, a past president of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Historical and Genealogical Society and former editor of its journal and was a member of numerous other national and international historical and genealogical societies.

She was preceded in death by her brother, Louis Daniel Smith.

Survivors include her husband John D. Moran; two daughters, Anita M. Kegley and Marie Maxwell, both of Pass Christian; a brother, Harry R. Smith of New Orleans and four grandchildren.

Visitation was 6-8 p.m. Tuesday, April 6, at the Riemann Funeral Home, 25th Avenue in Gulfport. The funeral will be at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday in the funeral home chapel followed by burial in the National Cemetery in Biloxi.

historian, Dr. Pat Smith, to recreate the persona of this great warrior and First Hero of New France. Many of Mrs. Moran's replicated colonial clothes were generously given to members of the Fort Maurepas Society and reenactors from other areas.

In my own mind, I will always remember Gloria Moran for her charity, tenacity and knowledge. In February 1993, the garrison and families of Fort Toulouse were guests of the Fort Maurepas Society and bivouacked in the replica. It was cold and rained the entire weekend. Mrs. Moran brought the women and children out of the inclement weather to stay with her at De Lisle. On another occasion when her health was severely failing, she and John drove the 40-odd miles to Fort Maurepas to bring food to a voyageur brigade from the Midwest.

No one fought harder or longer to get Fort Maurepas completed than Gloria Moran. She often lobbied our local legislatures and journeyed to the capitol at Jackson to present programs and information to persuade State politicians to recognize and fund the final stages of our French Colonial replica.

Mrs. Moran was a zealot for historical accuracy and authenticity.

She was proud of her antiquities collections and shared her knowledge and historical and genealogical data with interested parties. Anyone who met Gloria at Fort Maurepas will remember her as a teacher of history. She was well read and could discuss or argue the fine points of French colonial history and genealogy with noted authorities.

The Fort Maurepas replica on Front Beach may rot into the soil, but Gloria Moran's desire and perseverance to see it to completion will always be remembered and honored by those of us who were fortunate to know and toil with her. She would have made one hell of a French colonist. God bless you, Gloria Moran, we will miss your courage, example and love. May your name be lauded as La Mere de Fort Maurepas.

Ladner, Cuevas among oldest Coast names

Ancestry gets new attention

By KEN FINK

THE SUN HERALD

Matina, Creel, Mavor, Rosetti, Desporte, Swehman. All old Coast families, right?

Well, correct, but certainly not the oldest.

As the Tricentennial puts a focus on the Coast's history, some families can trace their roots and ancestors to the day discoverer Pierre LeMoigne, Sieur d'Iberville, set foot here.

A variety of family names represent the diversity of cultures that have shaped the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

But they all had to start somewhere.

Hancock County historian

Charles Gray explains it this way in regard to one of the first true Coastians: Christian Ladner had 12 children. One daughter married Ron Cuevas. From them, there are 63,000 descendants. Do not pick a fight with a Cuevas or a Ladner unless you can muster an army."

Some of the earliest residents came to the Coast aboard one of Iberville's three ships — Le Marin, La Padin and Francois — with names such as Corro, Ladner, LaFontaine and Saucier.

By 1690, there were only about 48 families, or 700 or 800 people living between the Pearl and Perdido rivers.

"They married each other, they married the Indians," Gray said. "They were all French or Spanish, and they were all Catholic. There were no schools, no churches, no law."

With illiteracy came name changes, many believe. Ladner changed to Lander, Sasser to Saucier, Fave to Fawe, Morn to Moran. People began spelling their names the way they sounded.

Land was as abundant as seafood. But before the railroad and the rise of seafood exports, the Coast's population remained stable.

"Jacques Maturin Ladner was the first justice of the peace in Biloxi even though he couldn't read or write," said Nan Casibry, historian. "He had two sisters. One married Jean Baptiste Foyard, and the other married a Corro. Between the two sisters and brother and their husbands, they owned all the land between Hopkins Avenue and Point Cadet."

Until 1721, people and supplies had to be unloaded at the barrier islands because the Mississippi Sound was too shallow.

When Iberville's brother Bienville began settling New Orleans, that became a more accessible port.

"From 1721 on, virtually all traffic to the Gulf Coast from Europe stopped," Gray said. "It went to New Orleans. The families that lived here became stagnant."

After the Louisiana Purchase, and just before Mississippi became a state in 1817, the land was opened to settlers. That brought a huge population of Anglo-Saxon Protestants from the middle eastern seaboard — with names such as Gray, Hugghins, Cole, Evans and McCray.

Many settled near Pascagoula, but some eventually made their way across the Coast, stopping at the Bay of St. Louis 100 years before it was bridged, then moving around the north of the bay.

What did perhaps the most for the Coast's population was the railroad in 1870.

The railroad did two things for population growth in Biloxi and Bay St. Louis.

First, it created a new way to get seafood to markets across the South and beyond, bringing in more French settlers, Yugoslavian immigrants and Indians.

Families with names such as Bartey, Sekul, Mavor, Covacevich, Matina and Desporte settled during the 1800s, many making their living from the shrimp and seafood business.

On the other end of the Coast in Bay St. Louis, New Orleans businessmen were then able to take their families to Bay St. Louis.

The Villeres, deMontluzins, Necaisses and Toulmes eventually settled in the Bay.

In Ocean Springs, where the first settlement started, families entered the industries of seafood, oranges, charcoal and pecans.

Life was simple and pleasant, and families stayed.
